Living Through Dying Douglas Dales, 1994 In this beautifully written study Douglas Dales examines the autobiographical passages in St Paul's letters notably II Corinthians in the light of the continuing spiritual experience and language of the church to ascertain the saint's own experience of entering into the dying and rising of Christ This phenomenon is related to certain aspects of other New Testament writings especially early Christian attitudes to the passages about suffering in the Old Testament and the testimony of the Apostolic Fathers Douglas Dales aims to address the question What makes a church a place where the experience of living through dying may be realised and concludes his study with a call to the modern church in the West to pursue afresh the steps of the saints This book takes us back to the heart of that mystery which has been worked out in so many different circumstances It tells of the mystery of Christ and the cross above all as it is expounded in the writings of Saint Paul From the Foreword by The Revd Canon A M Allchin

Garland, 1999 One in an ongoing series of esteemed and popular Bible commentary volumes based on the New International Version text     Hidden Critique of Solomon in the Hebrew Bible Pekka Särkiö, 2025-08-29 The period of Israel's united kingdom under King Solomon is portrayed in 1 Kings 3:11 as ideal in order to arouse hope for the restoration of Israelite kingship. Conversely, postexilic writers were faced with traditions that blamed the division of the united kingdom on Solomon's sins. Pekka Särkiö explores how the writers of the Hebrew Bible used scribal tools and creativity to weave these disparate perspectives together with a subtle hidden critique that stretches through the Torah, Prophets, and Writings. This in-depth study reveals the expressions, themes, and structures that evoke Solomon's foreign wives, his excessive wealth, his respect for other gods, his pride, and his elevation to a venerated character. The resulting texts allow the coexistence of hope for the future and the concerns of northern survivors who blamed Solomon for the exile and the divided kingdom     The Holy Vessels and Furniture of the Tabernacle of Israel Henry William Soltan, 1873
