Berry, 2016-02-19 Eschatological glory is a significant motif in Romans that has failed to garner the attention it deserves Donald Berry argues that glory lies at the heart of Paul's redemptive historical framework and is an integral part of the gospel Paul proclaims in Romans For Paul eschatological glory is the realization of God's purpose for Adam and for Israel to see and to show forth the glory of God This divine purpose finds fulfillment in Christ and in the new humanity he creates those who now have hope of the glory of God Rom 5:2 Paul's letter to the Romans provides stunning glimpses into the nature of this eschatological glory and the hope that believers have in Christ Through careful and compelling exegesis Berry brings to light Paul's conception of glory and its place at the center of God's purposes in redemptive history. While providing crucial insights into Romans, this study also contributes more broadly to Pauline theology and to the field of biblical theology. It highlights Paul's understanding of a unified divine purpose that runs through creation and redemption: God's desire to display his nature and character in all of creation through image bearers who share in and reflect his glory.

Wisdom, Glory and the Name Priest-Monk Silouan, 2013-12-06. A collection of scholarly essays on the role of women in Eastern Christianity in Antiquity and through to contemporary times. James, 1-2 Peter, Jude, Revelation M. Robert Mulholland, Jr., Grant R. Osborne, 2011. The Cornerstone Biblical Commentary series provides up-to-date evangelical scholarship on the Old and New Testaments. Each volume is designed to equip pastors and Christian leaders with exegetical and theological knowledge to better understand and apply God's Word by presenting the message of each passage as well as an overview of other issues surrounding the text. The commentary series has been structured to help readers understand the meaning of Scripture passage by passage through the entire Bible. The New Living Translation is an authoritative Bible translation rendered faithfully into today's English from the ancient texts by 90 leading Bible scholars. The NLT's scholarship and clarity breathe life into even the most difficult to understand Bible passages, but even more powerful are stories of how people's lives are changing as the words speak directly to their hearts. That's why we call it The Truth Made Clear. About the authors of this volume: Grant R. Osborne, PhD, University of Aberdeen, is Professor of New Testament at Trinity Evangelical Divinity School. He has authored and edited numerous books, including The Hermeneutical Spiral and many commentaries on the New Testament. M. John Piper has devoted his life to showing us that the glory of God is the object of the soul's happiness. Now his burden in this book is to demonstrate that this same glory is the ground of the mind's certainty. God's peculiar glory shines through his Word. The Spirit of God enlightens the eyes of our hearts. And in one self-authenticating sight, our minds are sure and our hearts are satisfied. Justified certainty and solid joy meet in the peculiar glory of God.
