Pioneer Churches along the Gold Rush Trail Liz Bryan, 2022-06-14 A fascinating tour through BC's historical gold rush trails focusing on the nineteenth century churches that were pivotal to the establishment of early settler communities Much has been written about the Cariboo gold rush from the trails and wagon roads to the rowdy mining camps from tales of great luck to those of disappointment and despair This book paints a different picture of those pioneer days It is a guide to the nineteenth century churches that were built during the gold rush or in the settlement days that followed Most of these historic structures were handmade of local wood though they differed greatly in size and style Some are now abandoned untenanted but still worthy of inspection All were built to fill the spiritual need of the European migrants who flooded to the area to nurture a sense of community that survived even after the gold was gone Filled with beautiful colour photography and detailed maps Pioneer Churches along the Gold Rush Trail highlights the history geography architecture craftsmanship and social context of dozens of gold rush era churches preserving them in their varying states of decay for posterity While acknowledging the destructive forces of colonialism including Christianity on Indigenous Peoples this book also examines the historical role of churches in community building and invites the reader to consider this dichotomy with an open and curious mind

Deep Roots, Living Branches Alan Betteridge, 2010-08-01 There have been Baptist churches in the Midlands since at least 1626 This book describes their story from Stoke on Trent in the north to Droitwich in the south and from Rugby in the east to Oswestry in the west and covers the whole of the large West Midland conurbation surrounding Birmingham This volume includes the whole range of Baptists who have arisen from different sources over the generations whether or not they have been in organised Association life Local historians will gain an insight into a vital aspect of their community's story Original texts have been used to let people and their churches speak for themselves The story has been divided into periods of time reaching 2009 when the office of the Heart of England Baptist Association which covers most of the Baptist churches in this account made a significant move to a new location in Selly Oak Within each period important topics are highlighted such as worship social impact church planting etc in this way considerable growth and important changes over the years are detailed Some exciting stories emerge such as the leading role Baptists had in the campaign to abolish slavery The publication of Deep Roots Living Branches is a contribution to the celebration of the 400th anniversary of the start of the world's first Baptist church among English migrants in Amsterdam in 1609 The book includes numerous line drawings by the talented artist the late Violet Kennard of Coventry

The Cathedral Church of Saint David's Philip Appleby Robson,1901 The Archaeological Journal ,1877 Political Culture in Late Medieval Britain Linda Clark,Christine Carpenter,2004 Eight studies of aspects of C15 England united by a common focus on the role of ideas in political developments of the time The concept of political culture has become very fashionable in the last thirty years but only recently has it been consciously taken up by practitioners of late medieval English history who have argued for the need to acknowledge the role of ideas in politics While this work has focused on elite political culture interest in the subject has been growing among historians of towns and villages especially as they have begun to recognise the importance of both internal politics and national government in the affairs of townsmen and peasants This volume the product of a conference on political culture in the late middle ages explores the subject from a variety of perspectives and in a variety of spheres It is hoped that it will put the subject firmly on the map for the study of late medieval England and lead to further exploration of political culture in this period Contributors CAROLINE BARRON ALAN CROMARTIE CHRISTOPHER DYER MAURICE KEEN MIRI RUBIN BENJAMIN THOMPSON JOHN WATTS JENNY WORMALD LINDA CLARK is editor
