Go And Do Likewise Jesus And Ethics:

Go and Do Likewise William Spohn, 2000-09-01 What does Jesus have to do with ethics There are two brief answers given by believers everything and not much While evangelical or fundamentalist Christians would find authoritative guidance in the words and commands of Jesus as recorded in the New Testament many mainstream Christian ethicists would say that Jesus is too concrete or narrowly particular to have any direct import for ethics In this book Williams Spohn takes a middle way showing how Jesus is the concrete universal of Christian ethics By forming a bridge from the lives of contemporary Christians to the words and deeds of Jesus Jesus story as a whole exemplifies moral perception motivation and Christian identity In addition Spohn shows how the practices of Christian spirituality specifically prayer service and community train the imagination and reorient emotions to produce a character and a way of life consonant with Christian New Testament moral teaching

A History of Catholic Moral Theology in the Twentieth Century James F. Keenan, 2010-01-17 This is an historical survey of 20th Century Roman Catholic Theological Ethics also known as moral theology The thesis is that only through historical investigation can we really understand how the most conservative and negative field in Catholic theology at the beginning of the 20th could become by the end of the 20th century the most innovative one The 20th century begins with moral manuals being translated into the vernacular After examining the manuals of Thomas Slater and Henry Davis Keenan then turns to three works and a crowning synthesis of innovation all developed before during and soon after the Second World War The first by Odon Lottin asks whether moral theology is adequately historical Fritz Tillmann asks whether it is adequately biblical and Gerard Gilman whether it is adequately spiritual Bernard Haering integrates these contributions into his Law of Christ Of course people like Gerald Kelly and John Ford in the US are like a few moralists elsewhere classical gate keepers censoring innovation But with Humanae vitae and successive encyclicals bishops and popes reject the direction of moral theologians At the same time moral theologians like Josef Fuchs ask whether the locus of moral truth is in continuous universal teachings of the magisterium or in the moral judgment of the informed conscience In their move toward a deeper appreciation of their field as forming consciences they turn more deeply to local experience where they continue their work of innovation Each continent subsequently gives rise to their own respondents In Europe they speak of autonomy and personalism in Latin America liberation theology in North America Feminism and Black Catholic theology and in Asia and Africa a deep post colonial interculturism At the end I assert that in its nature theological ethics is historical and innovative seeking moral truth for the conscience by looking to speak crossculturally

Exploring Ordinary Theology Leslie J. Francis, 2016-04-15 Ordinary theology characterizes the reflective God talk of the great majority of churchgoers and others who remain largely untouched by the assumptions concepts and arguments that academic theology takes for granted Jeff Astley coined the phrase in his innovative study Ordinary Theology Looking Listening and Learning in Theology arguing that speaking statistically ordinary theology is the theology of God's Church A number of scholars have responded to this and related conceptualizations exploring their theological implications Other researchers have adopted the perspective in examining a range of Church practices and contexts of Christian discipleship using the tools of empirical study Ordinary theology research has proved to be key in uncovering people's everyday lay theology or ordinary dogmatics Exploring Ordinary Theology presents fresh contributions from a wide range of authors who address the theological empirical and practical dimensions of this central feature of ordinary Christian existence and the life of the Church

Liberal Learning as a Quest for Purpose William M. Sullivan, 2016-06-03 In a remarkable experiment lasting over a decade a group of 88 independent campuses ranging from comprehensive universities to intimate colleges have demonstrated the value of an emerging educational agenda focused on meaning and purpose These programs have shown that college can provide emerging adults with an understanding of themselves within today's insecure and highly competitive world that enhances their ability to develop the grit needed to create meaningful lives By focusing on the exploration of vocation and its theological foundations the programs have produced remarkable outcomes in enhanced student engagement in the learning process and more effective entry into adult life Discernment of vocation provides for many students a synthetic and compelling focus for intellectual and practical exploration Sustained by articulate reflection and grounded in communities of learning that include faculty as well as students undergraduate life takes on new significance and urgency Liberal Learning as a Quest for Purpose analyzes a series of successful efforts to reconfigure undergraduate education as a journey toward life purpose Examining the experiences of students and faculty William M Sullivan reveals the concrete importance of this educational agenda for individual lives and particular campuses By connecting the several dimensions of undergraduate experience through reflection on purpose Sullivan demonstrates how these programs expanded the bandwidth of academic learning in energizing and exploratory ways Within the larger troubled environment of contemporary higher education these pioneering efforts hold promise for a significant rethinking of the undergraduate experience to better serve students and society

Public Work Christian Batalden Scharen, 2004 Description In a time of increasing cultural pluralism and vast religious restructuring in the United States Christian social ethics must take account of how values and commitments shape Christian communities In Public Worship and Public Work Christian Scharen examines theological claims about the relationship of worship and ethics by means of ethnographic study of the life worship and work of three vibrant congregations Public Worship and Public Work moves beyond two caricatures of the relationship between worship and social ethics Rather than resolute portrayals of the Church as a reflection of its culture and context and causal accounts of the Church's liturgy forming a Christian witness over and against culture this book lifts up congregational identity as an area of dynamic interaction between worship social ethics and culture Chapters in Part One are Liturgy and Social Ethics Characterizing a Debate and Sociologizing the Debate Identity Ritual and Public Commitment Chapters in Part Two Three Case Studies in Atlanta's Old Downtown are People Living Church The Catholic Shrine of the Immaculate Conception Jesus Saves Big Bethel African Methodist Episcopal Church and The Church at Work Central Presbyterian Church Part Three concludes with The World in the Church in the World Because You Bear This Name Bonnie Howe, 2006 This study uses conceptual metaphor

Post, 2003-05-15 Research on Altruism and Love is a compendium of annotated bibliographies reviewing literature and research studies on the nature of love An essay introduces each of the annotated bibliographies A variety of literature either directly related to science and love issues or supporting literature for those issues is covered in the Religious Love Interfaces with Science section This annotated bibliography is unique in that it approaches the field from a decidedly religious perspective It includes classical expositions of love that continue to influence contemporary scholars including Plato's work on eros the work and words of Jesus Aristotle Augustine of Hippo Martin Luther Kierkegaard and Gandhi among others The contemporary discussion includes Anders Nygren's theological arguments in his classic Agape and Eros Pitirim Sorokin and others An issue that often emerges in this literature is the question of the nature and definition of love A second annotated bibliography features current empirical research in the field of Personality and Altruism with a focus on social psychology Among the topics covered are the altruistic personality altruistic behavior empathy helping behavior social responsibility and volunteerism Methodologies are diverse and studies include experiments local and national surveys naturalistic observation and combinations of these The Evolutionary Biology annotated bibliography covers the most significant works on altruism

The Early Christian Community Douglas A. Hume, 2011 Douglas A Hume offers a narrative ethical reading of the passages depicting the early Christian community in Acts 2 41 47 and 4 32 35 He begins with a methodological exploration of how contemporary scholars may examine the impact of biblical narratives upon reader s moral imaginations Given the presence of friendship language in Acts the work subsequently launches into an examination of this idiom in Greco Roman philosophical and literary works by Aristotle Plutarch Diogenes Laertius and Iamblichus The author then proceeds to an exegetical examination of how friendship language is employed by Luke in the narrative summaries of Acts This ethical reading of the Acts 2 41 47 and 4 32 35 incorporates multiple features of narrative criticism and asks such wide ranging questions as the use of emotion point of view and characterization to shape the reading audience s perception of God the early Christian community and other characters within the story of Luke Acts This study has implications for biblical studies practical theology and contemporary understandings of ecclesiology

Desire for God and the Things of God Wyndy Corbin Reuschling, 2012-09-21 For many Christians spirituality and ethics are in separate mental and experiential compartments Spirituality may be understood as an inner experience while ethics is focused on decisions or positions on issues Both of these views reduce spirituality and morality in Christian faith and practice and ignore the centrality of desire for God and the things of God as key focal points for spiritual and moral formation These aspects of Christian formation must be located in their scriptural and theological contexts in order to understand more fully what God desires for human life This focus on desire provides content and context to Christian spirituality and morality We are drawn outward to focus on God and the good of others while we learn to embody virtues such as compassion courage self control gratitude humility and hope Practices are crucial ways by which we learn to incarnate our ultimate desire of love for God and for what God desires in the pursuit of justice and goodness for all creation In so doing practices enable us to more fully integrate spiritual and moral growth in the processes of our desire for God and the things of God But It Is Not So Among You Alberto de Mingo Kaminouchi, 2003-10-01 Power is an issue that is attracting increased interest among philosophers theologians and social scientists The gospel of Mark especially in 10 32 45 contains teachings attributed to Jesus about the use and abuse of power This book applies a combination of different methods and approaches mainly orality criticism literary criticism and a sensitivity for the social and cultural environment of the text showing the centrality of Jesus s message on the issue of power both for the plot and for the theology of Mark This message is a call to practice leadership in a way that is subversive toward the networks of power of the empire
