fulfil her own imperative that the past has to be revised

Howard Frank Mosher and the Classics James Robert Saunders, 2014-04-04 Howard Frank Mosher has spent the greater part of his career depicting a relatively isolated section of Vermont known as the Northeast Kingdom Yet even as he writes about that particular area in the Green Mountain State he is investigating age old themes from among the best English and American literary works His first novel Disappearances 1977 signaled the arrival of a master craftsman harkening us back to Melville's Billy Budd and Moby Dick in terms of humankind's struggle against an ever present evil A full 33 years after the publication of his first novel the Vermont author in Walking to Gatlinburg 2010 examined the polarity between cowardice and honor In the intervening years between Disappearances and Gatlinburg Mosher explored crucial matters such as the disappearing wilderness industrialization black male white female encounters the necessity of humor the quest for salvation and the immortality of romantic love all issues that he delved into as he staked out a unique terrain within the pantheon of Bunyan Shakespeare Dreiser Twain Faulkner Steinbeck Harper Lee and others

Go Down, Moses William Faulkner, 1970

The Social Lives of Books Edward Frederick Finn, 2011

This project explores how changing models of literary production are blurring or erasing the divisions between authors critics and readers Millions of cultural consumers are participating in previously closed literary conversations and expressing forms of mass distinction through their purchases and reviews of books These traces of popular reading choices constitute a fresh perspective on elusive audience reactions to literature and reveal evolving networks of conversation Employing network analysis methodologies and distant reading of book reviews recommendations and other digital traces of cultural distinction I develop a new model for literary culture in America today Through readings of the fiction and reception of Thomas Pynchon Toni Morrison David Foster Wallace and Junot Díaz this model outlines the fundamental requirements for contemporary literary fame My introduction outlines methodological tools I developed and situates them in the critical traditions of literary reception cultural sociology and media theory before describing the digital ecologies that have emerged around literature online and their value Chapter 1 explores the nature of literary fame through a case study of Thomas Pynchon whose carefully guarded anonymity and ironic distance from capitalism are reflected in the networks his readers construct around his long challenging books In stark contrast Toni Morrison the subject of Chapter 2 has succeeded critically and commercially tirelessly seeking out readers to form literary communities around her writing most prominently through her collaboration with Oprah's Book Club Chapter 3 considers David Foster Wallace and Junot Diaz and sets out a model for contemporary literary culture a reading society that demands new forms of authorial reflexivity to mirror the collaborative iterative nature of digital literary conversations I conclude with a brief consideration of the exciting prospects and challenges for fiction in a world that reads more than ever but is growing disaffected with the material realities of literary production
