Derrick Bang, 2024-05-01 Although Vince Guaraldi's playful jazz piano themes for the early Peanuts animated television specials are well known the composer himself remains largely unheralded More than merely the Peanuts guy Guaraldi cut his jazz teeth as a member of combos fronted by Cal Tjader and Woody Herman and garnered Top 40 fame with his Grammy Award winning hit Cast Your

Fate to the Wind This career study extensively updated gives Guaraldi long overdue recognition chronicling his years as a sideman his attraction to the emerging bossa nova sound of the late 1950s his collaboration with Brazilian guitarist Bola Sete his development of the Grace Cathedral Jazz Mass his selection as the fellow to put the jazz swing in Charlie Brown's step and his emergence as a respected veteran in the declining Northern California jazz club scene of the 1970s Ironically his place in the jazz universe has grown exponentially since this book's initial 2012 publication and this second edition acknowledges such honors and features a wealth of new material Peanuts and American Culture Peter W.Y.

Lee, 2019-05-10 Peanuts creator Charles M Schulz insisted good ol' Charlie Brown and his friends were neither great art nor significant Yet Schulz's acclaimed daily comic strip syndicated in thousands of newspapers over five decades brilliantly mirrored tensions in American society during the second half of the 20th century Focusing on the strip's Cold War roots this collection of new essays explores existentialism the reshaping of the nuclear family the Civil Rights Movement 1960s counterculture feminism psychiatry and fear of the bomb Chapters focus on the development of Lucy Peppermint Patty Schroeder Franklin Shmoo Snoopy and the other characters that became American icons Go, Flight! Rick Houston, Milt Heflin, 2015-12 At first glance it looks like just another auditorium in just another government building But among the talented men and later women who worked in mission control the room located on the third floor of Building 30 at what is now Johnson Space Center would become known by many as the Cathedral These members of the space program were the brightest of their generations making split second decisions that determined the success or failure of a mission The flight controllers each supported by a staff of specialists were the most visible part of the operation running the missions talking to the heavens troubleshooting issues on board and ultimately attempting to bring everyone safely back home None of NASA's storied accomplishments would have been possible without these people Interviews with dozens of individuals who worked in the historic third floor mission control room bring the compelling stories to life Go Flight is a real world reminder of where we have been and where we could go again given the right political and social climate
