that Spoke John Dominic Crossan,2008-03-01 In this revolutionary work John Dominic Crossan reveals that the Passion and Resurrection Narratives in the four canonical Gospels are radical revisions of an earlier Gospel account He argues boldly that the apocryphal Gospel of Peter discovered in the grave of a Christian monk in Egypt circa 1886 contains the earliest version of the death burial and resurrection of Jesus He describes how the authors of the four Gospels revised the early account of how their revision predominated as Roman authority grew Lacking in the revision he suggests is the very heart of the earlier Passion its depiction of Jesus death as the consummation of Israel s pain and the resurrection as the vindication of Israel s faith

The Sacrificial Economy Michael Kozuh,2014-10-21 In the mid first millennium B C the Eanna temple at Uruk sacrificed a minimum of nine lambs every day in its basic routine of offerings to its gods in addition to these special occasions and festivals demanded the sacrifice of as many as 90 lambs in a single day All told the Eanna sacrificed about 4 300 lambs per year There were more than 120 herdsman connected to the Eanna at any given time and the temple expected there to be tens of thousands of sheep and goats under their responsibility These herdsman delivered male lambs to the Eanna for sacrifice and the temple had an internal infrastructure for the care maintenance and ritual expenditure of these lambs they also delivered wool which the Eanna sold mostly in bulk quantities This book aims to analyze the economic organization of this entire system of sheep and goat maintenance and utilization to explore the economic and social relationships between the Eanna and its herdsman and to integrate the study of the Eanna s animal economy into the developing picture of the Neo Babylonian temple economy as a whole Kozuh s careful examination of the bookkeeping records the management records and legal documents connected with this substantial enterprise sheds new light on an arcane area of first millennium Mesopotamian life that will be sure to enlighten our understanding of the daily life economy and social structure of this region stories the reader will find an amalgam of thoughts experiences maturation and influences which have affected the life of the author While some of the stories are humorous tragic rancorous or filled with questions the reader might ask himself herself it is hoped that a new set of insights have been provided to give meaning to their lives What drives persons to question their beliefs growth human examples and what has produced the type of person he she has become Everyone has grown up with persons who have influenced them more than they knew at the time of their encounter It may only be years later that they may recognize who what and why they have experienced the vagaries of life unique to themselves Even as a person s finger prints are unique and so uniquely differentiated that there are no two sets of finger prints alike among human beings each one of us has his her own unique lifetimes which no one else may have had There are segments of a person s life which may resonate in terms of experiences persons events and places truly unique to themselves but unduplicated in the same forms as those of their neighbors A Medley of Short Stories attempts to illustrate how unique the totality of a person s life can be from beginning to end from birth to death from childhood to adulthood from tragedy to success depending upon what a person makes of the lifetime experiences which everyone has but not everyone can turn to his or her advantage It is the hope of the author to provide an insight and stimulus to the reader s reevaluation of his her life which will assist in evaluating the heights and depths to which their own lives have evolved or are evolving in the course of their lifetimes
