God And The Victim Theological Reflections On Evil Victimization Justice And Forgiveness:

God and the Victim Lisa Barnes Lampman, Michelle D. Shattuck, 1999 Written by teachers theologians and practitioners well known for their expertise in the field God and the Victim probes and examines issues of evil justice victimization and forgiveness Working from the view that crime is primarily a spiritual issue the authors look at examples of victimization in the Bible for guidance about how we can better minister to victims today from publisher description Religion and Peacebuilding Harold Coward, Gordon S. Smith, 2012-02-01 In the wake of September 11 2001 religion is often seen as the motivating force behind terrorism and other acts of violence Religion and Peacebuilding looks beyond headlines concerning violence perpetrated in the name of religion to examine how world religions have also inspired social welfare and peacemaking activism Leading scholars from the Aboriginal Hindu Buddhist Confucian Jewish Muslim and Christian traditions provide detailed analyses of the spiritual resources for fostering peace within their respective religions The contributors discuss the formidable obstacles to nonviolent conflict transformation found within sacred texts and living traditions Case studies of Northern Ireland Bosnia Cambodia and South Africa are also examined as practical applications of spiritual resources for peace The Limits of Forgiveness Maria Mayo, 2021-05-06 Demystifying an unrealistic ideal Maria Mayo questions the contemporary idealization of unconditional forgiveness in three areas of contemporary life so called Victim Offender Mediation involving cases of criminal injury the work of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission in post apartheid South Africa and the pastoral care of victims of domestic violence She shows that an emphasis on unilateral and unconditional forgiveness puts disproportionate pressure on the victims of injustice or violence and misconstrues the very biblical passages especially in Jesus teaching and actions on which advocates of unconditional forgiveness rely Rid of My Disgrace Justin S. Holcomb, Lindsey A. Holcomb, 2011 Helps adult victims of sexual assault move from brokenness to healing This book outlines a theology of redemption and includes an application of how the disgrace of the cross can lead victims toward grace Sticky Faith, Youth Worker Edition Kara Powell, Brad M. Griffin, Cheryl A. Crawford, 2011-10-04 Many of the statistics you read about teenagers and faith can be alarming Recent studies show that 40 50 percent of kids who are connected to a youth group throughout their senior year will fail to stick with their faith in college As youth workers are pouring their time and energy into the students in their ministries they are often left wondering if they've done enough to equip their students to carry their faith into adulthood Fuller Youth Institute has done extensive research in the area of youth ministry and teenage development In Sticky Faith the team at FYI presents youth workers with both a theological philosophical framework and practical programming ideas that develop long term faith in teenagers Each chapter presents a summary of FYI's quantitative and qualitative research along with the implications of this research including program ideas suggested and tested by youth ministries nationwide This resource will give youth pastors what they need to help foster a faith that sticks with all the teenagers in their group long after they've left the youth room All Things Reconciled

Christopher D. Marshall, 2018-06-12 The modern restorative justice movement perhaps one of the most important social movements of our time was born in a Christian home to Christian parents specifically to Christian peace workers striving to put their faith into action in the public arena The first major book on the subject was written primarily for a church audience and drew deeply on biblical themes and values But as restorative justice has moved into the mainstream of criminological thought and policy the significance of its originating spiritual impulse has been minimized or denied and subsequent theological scholarship has done little to probe the relevance of restorative perspectives for doctrine and discipleship In this collection of essays Christopher D Marshall a biblical scholar and restorative practitioner who has devoted his career to exploring the relationship between the two fields considers how peacemaking Christians can honor the witness and authority of Scripture including its apparently violence endorsing strands as they strive to join in God's great work in Christ of reconciling to himself all things whether on earth or in heaven by making peace through the blood of his cross Col 1 20

Living in the Lamplight Hans Boersma, 2001-01-08 In recent decades many fundamental Christian assumptions about the nature of God and the world have come under attack No longer can one assume even in many church circles that historic Christian beliefs about the Trinity and providence are generally accepted or understood Scientific knowledge and new technologies have also presented challenges for the church How for example should Christians understand the ecological crisis And how should the opening chapters of Genesis be understood in an age of genetic research and evolutionary science This collection of essays attempts to chart a faithful path for postmodern Christians exploring the foundational ideas and concepts of a Christian worldview and suggesting their implications for Christian living today Contributors Hans Boersma John Cooper Marva J Dawn Michael W Goheen Christopher D Marshall Arnold E Sikkema John G Stackhouse Jr Rikki E Watts John R Wood

Competing Memories Rebekka Friedman, 2017-08-24 The aftermath of modern conflicts deeply rooted in political economic and social structures leaves pervasive and often recurring legacies of violence Addressing past injustice is therefore fundamental not only for societal well being and peace but also for future conflict prevention In recent years truth and reconciliation commissions have become important but contentious mechanisms for conflict resolution and reconciliation This book fills a significant gap examining the importance of context within transitional justice and peace building It lays out long term and often unexpected indirect effects of formal and informal justice processes Offering a novel conceptual understanding of procedural reconciliation on the societal level it features an in depth study of commissions in Peru and Sierra Leone providing a critical analysis of the contribution and challenges facing transitional justice in post conflict societies It will be of interest to scholars and students of comparative politics international relations human rights and conflict studies Sticky Faith Service

Amidst Mass Atrocity and the Rubble of Theology Peter Admirand, 2012-03-16 It is hubris to claim answers to unanswerable questions Such questions however as part of their burden and worth must still be asked investigated and contemplated How there can be a loving all powerful God and a world stymied by suffering and evil is one of the unanswerable questions we must all struggle to answer even as our responses are closer to gasps silences and further questions More importantly how and whether one articulates a response will have deep lasting repercussions for any belief in God and in our judgments upon one another Throughout this wide ranging interdisciplinary work Peter Admirand draws upon his extensive research and background in theology and testimonial literature trauma and genocide studies cultural studies philosophy of religion interreligious studies and systematic theology As David Burrell writes in the Foreword The work's intricate structure organization and development will lead us to appreciate that the best one can settle for is a fractured faith built on a fractured theodicy expressed in a language explicitly fragmented pluralist and broken
