Light out of Blue Darkness Amy Perrin Brown, 2022-06-15 Life shouldn't be this hard Death shouldn't be so cruel Light always finds a way Look behind the windows of her eyes and you will see a lifetime of captured memories Memories of love loss pain and joy As a child in the deep south toiling through her father's cotton fields she lived with hopes that a bountiful harvest was always on the horizon Her journey north offered promise for her child and a future for her family Yet through all the tears heartbreak betrayal and strife the light of love still found its way out of the blue darkness This is the life story of Rose

Blue Baby Dorinda Bush Jones, 2024-06-27 Dorinda Bush Jones started keeping a journal to share her struggles of being a terminal blue baby with her son and grandchildren Born with four serious heart defects before open heart surgery was a reality she spent much of her time alone unable to keep up with other children She often joined her parents at church where she learned to rely on God during her lonely times During the summer of her eleventh year she began to see how God was steering the direction of her life to bring her to the place where she could go from being terminal to being here to tell her story While her journal was originally meant for her family she realized that people beyond her inner circle wanted to hear about how she was miraculously healed when she mentioned her writing during her various visits to doctors' offices In this memoir she reveals to the world how God who knew all about her kept her alive and led her to doctors who were learning trying out new inventions machinery and surgical techniques including stopped heart surgery
