Heaven in Ordinary Noel Dermot O'Donoghue,1996      Heaven In Ordinary Noel O'Donoghue,2000-12-27 A unique study of those human dimensions such as belonging loneliness and pathos often overlooked in theology and philosophy

Beyond Memory Alexandre Dessingué,Jay Winter,2015-08-14 Beyond Memory Silence and the Aesthetics of Remembrance analyses the intricate connections between silence acts of remembrance and acts of forgetting and relates the topic of silence to the international research field of Cultural Memory Studies It engages with the most recent work in the field by viewing silence as a remedy to the traditionally binary approach to our understanding of remembering and forgetting The international team of contributors examine case studies from colonialism war politics and slavery from across the globe as well as drawing examples from literature philosophy and sites of memory to draw three main conclusions Firstly that the relationship between remembering and forgetting is relational rather than hermetic and the space between the two is often occupied by silence Secondly silence is a force in itself capable of stimulating more or less remembrance Finally that silence is a necessary and key element in the interaction between the human mind and the outer world and enables people to challenge their understanding of art music literature history and memory With an introduction by the editors discussing Memory Studies and concluding remarks by Astrid Erll this collection demonstrates that acceptance and consideration of silence as having both a performative and aesthetic dimension is an essential component of history and memory studies

Revisiting the Idea of Vocation John C Haughey,2004-02 Until recently theologians have been in a deep slumber about the subject of vocations This volume represents one of the first awakenings in the theological community to this subject The ten contributors all theologians at Loyola University Chicago present original essays that explore vocations or callings

Eve's Pilgrimage Tina Beattie,2002-04-01 In this original book the author journeys through Rome following biblical events and themes in works of art from Genesis in the Sistine Chapel through Incarnation in the Pantheon and Resurrection in Michaelangelo's Last Judgement She touches on many themes in her journey including violence and power at the Colosseum social injustice at St Mary Major and motherhood at the icon of Our Lady in Perpetual Succour Writing as an intelligent Christian feminist Beattie doesn't resort to clichés and has a clear elegant style which makes this a very readable book
