unconscious use of clothing as a means of self expression inform many of Lurie s novels he writes where dress often sends out an unspoken signal from one character to another The sentiment of Don t Tell the Grown ups in which Lurie praises those children s books that express ideas and emotions not generally approved of and that view social pretenses with clear eyed directness is in good keeping with the satirical sensibility conveyed in Lurie s novels Lurie s impatience with artifice and self deception Costa writes is evident throughout her work Alison Lurie also includes an overview of the critical assessment of Lurie s writings and Costa addresses the viewpoints of both detractors and admirers Critics have been unanimous however in their appreciation for Lurie s lucid prose style and her acute powers of observation She is among the most gifted American novelists writing today Current Biography Yearbook ,1986 Current Biography Yearbook 1986 , Index to Fairy Tales, 1978-1986, Including Folklore, Legends, and Myths in Collections Norma Olin Ireland,Joseph W.
