Hebrews James Jude:

Hebrews, James and Jude R. J. Rushdoony, 2009-11-23 There is a resounding call in Hebrews which we cannot forget without going astray Let us go forth therefore unto him without the camp bearing his reproach 13 13 This is a summons to serve Christ the Redeemer King fully and faithfully without compromise In our time it calls for a break not only with the prevailing culture of humanistic statism and its messianic claims and pretensions but also a wayward church that has made itself the handmaiden to Christ's enemies When James in his epistle says that faith without works is dead he tells us that faith is not a mere matter of words but it is of necessity a matter of life We are dead men if we no longer can breathe and we are spiritually dead if our faith is unaccompanied by works Too many churches are like graveyards because too many members have no living faith Pure religion and undefiled requires Christian charity and action Anything short of this is a self delusion James's letter is a corrective the church needs badly Jude similarly recalls us to Jesus Christ's apostolic commission Remember ye the words which have been spoken before by the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ v 17 Jude's letter is usually classified as an apocalyptic tract but we cannot forget that all the Bible speaks of a division between fallen and redeemed humanity between the saved and the lost of the necessity for a new creation beginning with us and of the inescapable triumph of the Kingdom of God

The New Testament Epistles Doremus Almy Hayes, 1921 Hebrews and the Epistles General of Peter, James and Jude Sir John Herkless, 1902 Hebrews & the Epistles General of Peter, James & Jude Sir John Herkless, 1903 The New Testament Epistles Doremus Almy Hayes, 2015-06-27 Excerpt from The New Testament Epistles Hebrews James First Peter Second Peter Jude This volume concludes our studies in the special introduction to the New Testament books The first in the series Paul and His Epistles found that the personality of the apostle was apparent in all of the thirteen epistles ascribed to him The second book John and His Writings came to the conclusion that the personal characteristics of the Boanerges and beloved disciple could be traced in all of the five books which bear his name The third volume The Synoptic Gospels and the Book of Acts combined a study of the personalities of their authors with the study of the characteristics of the books themselves In this fourth and concluding volume the method of the preceding books has been continued in the study of James First Peter and Jude but it fails us in The Epistle to the Hebrews and the so called Second Epistle of Peter since the one is of anonymous and the other of pseudonymous authorship The epistles discussed in this volume are not upon the same sure basis of canonicity represented by most of the other books of the New Testament The oldest canonical list we have that of the Muratorian Fragment omits Hebrews James First Peter and Second Peter The Bible of the Western Church the Itala which was the second century translation of the New Testament books into the Latin did not contain Hebrews James and Second Peter The Bible of the Eastern Church the Peshito which was the second century translation of the New Testament books into the Syriac omitted Second Peter Second and Third John Jude and Revelation Origen in the third century classed Second Peter Second and Third John James and Jude among the doubtful

Hebrews, 1902 New Testament Epistles Doremus Almy Hayes, 2019 The New Testament Epistles Doremus Almy Hayes, 2017-11-22 Excerpt from The New Testament Epistles Hebrews James First Peter Second Peter Jude If we put the books contained in the Itala and the Peshito together we have all the books of our New Testament except Second Peter These Bibles of the East and the West contained the First Epistle of Peter but the other books discussed in this volume were omitted in either the one or the other That meant that these books were somewhat slower than the other New Testament books in gaining canonical recognition in the general church If the suggestion made by Carlstadt at the time of the Reformation had been adopted by the Protestant church and the books of the New Testament had been divided into three classes according to their degree of canonical authority First Peter would have fallen into the second class and Hebrews James Second Peter and Jude would have been assigned to the third class as among the books to be Admitted last into the canon It is into this more doubtful field that we enter in this book We have attempted in this series to be thorough going in our research and independent in our conclusions We have tried to face all the facts and to be influenced only by these We have tried to submit the facts in each case believing that it was the right of the church both preachers and laymen to know them We have felt that it was one duty Of the theologian to transmit to the rank and file of the church membership the results of the best and most recent theological discussion and to put these into the most readable and interesting form which seemed to be possible The reception granted to the preceding volumes of this series would seem to indicate that we have succeeded in our endeavor in this direction in some measure at least About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
