Hec Storytelling:

Shared Storytelling in Euripidean Stichomythia Liesbeth Schuren, 2014-10-30 Long stichomythic dialogues in the tragedies of Euripides are connected with some of the greatest problems of critical appreciation. The form is considered unnatural, particularly when characters use stichomythia to tell stories to each other. In Shared Storytelling in Euripidean Stichomythia, Liesbeth Schuren tries to rehabilitate Euripidean stichomythia using pragmatic and narratological approaches. In the section devoted to pragmatic analysis, comparison between the turn-taking systems in Euripidean stichomythia and naturally occurring conversation establishes to what extent convention and realism are operative. Using narratological arguments, the traditional apparatus is expanded to suit the dialogic nature of narrative stichomythia. Analysis of narrative presentation in storytelling with two interlocutors results in a multi-faceted perspective, an effect unique to narrative stichomythia.

Storytelling in Luxury Fashion Amanda Sikarskie, 2020-11-22 This book examines the ways in which luxury fashion brands use their heritage in their digital storytelling and marketing. With chapters from authors in China and Macau, PRC, India, Romania, Turkey, the United Kingdom, and the United States, covering British, Chinese, French, Japanese, Indian, Italian, and Turkish brands, this truly global collection is the first book of its kind devoted solely to the emerging study of digital heritage storytelling. This method of reaching potential consumers and perpetuating brand identity is a hugely important factor in the marketing of luxury brands and has yet to be studied comprehensively. The book will be of interest to scholars working in fashion studies, fashion history, design history, design studies, digital humanities, and fashion marketing.

Storytelling Josepha Sherman, 2015-03-26 Storytelling is an ancient practice known in all civilizations throughout history. Characters, tales, techniques, oral traditions, motifs, and tale types transcend individual cultures; elements and names change, but the stories are remarkably similar, with each rendition highlighting the values and concerns of the host culture. Examining the stories and the oral traditions associated with different cultures offers a unique view of practices and traditions. Storytelling: An Encyclopedia of Mythology and Folklore brings past and present cultures of the world to life through their stories, oral traditions, and performance styles. It combines folklore and mythology, traditional arts, history, literature, and festivals to present an overview of world cultures through their liveliest and most fascinating mode of expression. This appealing resource includes specific storytelling techniques as well as retellings of stories from various cultures and traditions.

How to Use Storytelling in Your Academic Writing Timothy G. Pollock, 2021-02-26 Good writing skills and habits are critical for scholarly success. Every article is a story, and employing the techniques of effective storytelling enhances scholars' abilities to share their insights and ideas, increasing the impact of their research. This book draws on the tools and techniques of storytelling employed in fiction and non-fiction writing to help academic writers enhance the clarity, presentation, and flow of their scholarly work and provides insights on navigating the writing, reviewing, and coauthoring processes.

Intermediality and Storytelling Marina Grishakova, Marie-Laure Ryan, 2010-11-29 The narrative turn in the humanities which expanded the study of narrative to various disciplines has found a correlate in the medial turn in narratology Long restricted to language based literary fiction narratology has found new life in the recognition that storytelling can take place in a variety of media and often combines signs belonging to different semiotic categories visual auditory linguistic and perhaps even tactile The essays gathered in this volume apply the newly gained awareness of the expressive power of media to particular texts demonstrating the productivity of a medium aware analysis Through the examination of a wide variety of different media ranging from widely studied such as literature and film to new neglected or non standard ones such as graphic novels photography television musicals computer games and advertising they address some of the most fundamental questions raised by the medial turn in narratology how can narrative meaning be created in media other than language how do different types of signs collaborate with each other in so called multi modal works and what new forms of narrativity are made possible by the emergence of digital media 2010 B.C. R K Baessler,2011-04-13

Telling Tales on Caesar Phaedrus,John Henderson,2001 Cameos showcase Tiberius in private and Augustus in court with Pompey the Great on campaign and Phaedrus himself struggling against prejudice and persecution and tales feature all sorts a toadying slave wicked servant vain musician effeminate soldier sexy poet and rogue quack These forgotten tales tell short and clear Roman parables of power and powerlessness Humorous and acute they explain and protest at the Caesars and they sit perfectly among Aesop's sadistic lions, murderous wolves and apes in purple jacket. The Untold Story of Frankie Silver Perry Deane Young, 2012-05-04 Three days before Christmas in 1831 Frankie Silver killed her husband Charles Silver with an axe and burned his body in the fireplace. Author Perry Deane Young, whose ancestors were involved in the case, began collecting material about it as a teenager. As a college student, he was astounded to learn that most of what he had been told was actually false. Abused by her husband, Frankie killed in self-defense. The laws of that time would not allow her to take the stand and explain what happened. She was unjustly hanged in July of 1833. Young proves the real crime is the way this poor woman has been misrepresented by balladeers and historians all these years. Perry Deane Young provides important historical background to this fascinating story. Young is able to build suspense even for a story many of his readers may already know. By personalizing both Frankie Silver's story and his own search for it, Young has given readers an interesting and well-written book about history and the way it is created. Lynn Moss Sanders in Appalachian Journal. Most of my life I've heard stories about a pretty mountain lady who was hanged for nothing more serious than murdering her husband. Here and I can say at last, after one and a half centuries, is the true account, thoroughly researched and beautifully presented. It's a highroad journey into this Appalachian mystery. John Ehle, author of The Land Breakers, The Road, The Journey of August King.

The Principles and Practice of Narrative Medicine Rita Charon, 2017 The Principles and Practice of Narrative Medicine articulates the ideas, methods, and practices of narrative medicine. Written by the originators of the field, this book provides the authoritative starting place for any clinicians or scholars committed to learning of and eventually teaching or practicing narrative medicine. Taking Aviation to New Heights Jacqueline Cardinal, Laurent Lapierre, 2013-11-19 A fascinating biography of Pierre Jeannot, the man who was at the helm of Air Canada, IATA, and the aviation industry. Taking Aviation to New Heights is a compelling case study of how a business man was born and went on to achieve financial success, social status, and political sway. Professional Ethics in Athletic Training Gretchen A. Schlabach, Kimberly S. Peer, 2008-01-01 An invaluable resource for any athletic training curriculum, this text introduces athletic training as a profession by presenting an ethical framework of values, principles, and theory. Chapters explore important issues related to cultural competence, foundational behaviors of professional practice, professional and moral behavior, and ethical decision-making skills that both inform and transcend the athletic training profession. Learning activities at the end of each section help you see connections between the material and clinical practice, revealing new insights about yourself, your profession, and the organizations with which you will interact. Content draws connections between ethical values, principles, and theory as relating to the Foundational Behaviors of Professional Practice.
