Almond, Wild Almond D. K. Broster,2023-12-15 In Almond Wild Almond D K Broster crafts a captivating narrative that intricately weaves themes of identity nature and spirituality within the fabric of early 20th century Britain Set against the scenic backdrop of the English countryside the novella employs rich poetic language and vivid imagery reflecting Broster s keen observation of the natural world The interplay between humans and their environment serves as a powerful metaphor inviting readers to reflect on their own connections to nature and self Within this literary context Broster s exploration of individuality and social expectations resonates deeply with the modernist movements of her time challenging conventional storytelling and inviting emotional introspection D K Broster a noted figure in early 20th century literature drew from her own experiences and the tumultuous societal changes of her era to inform her writing Raised in a family steeped in artistic pursuits Broster s literary prowess was honed through her engagement with contemporary issues such as the shifting roles of women and the impact of war on society These influences permeate Almond Wild Almond imbuing the narrative with a profound empathy and an acute awareness of the human condition Readers seeking a richly textured exploration of personal and universal themes will find Almond Wild Almond an essential addition to their literary journey Broster s unique voice and lyrical style not only illuminate the beauty of the natural world but also provoke thoughtful dialogue on the complexities of human experience This novella is an invitation to embrace nature and self discovery in a world ripe with challenges

Legalized Identities Lucas Lixinski,2021-04-08 Cultural heritage is a feature of transitioning societies from museums commemorating the end of a dictatorship to adding places like the Auschwitz Birkenau concentration camp to the World Heritage List These processes are governed by specific laws and yet transitional justice discourses tend to ignore law s role assuming that memory in transition emerges organically This book debunks this assumption showing how cultural heritage law is integral to what memory and cultural identity is possible in transition Lixinski attempts to reengage with the original promise of transitional justice to pragmatically advance societies towards a future where atrocities will no longer happen The promise in the UNESCO Constitution of lasting peace through cultural understanding is possible through focusing on the intersection of cultural heritage law and transitional justice as Lixinski shows in this ground breaking book Journal of the Botanical Society of South Africa Botanical Society of South Africa,1927 The Annals of the Bolus Herbarium Bolus Herbarium,1914 The Daily Discoveries of a Bible Scholar and Manuscript Hunter: A Biography of James Rendel Harris \(1852-1941\) Alessandro Falcetta,2018-05-31 This is the first full biography of James Rendel Harris 1852 1941 Bible and patristic scholar manuscript collector Quaker theologian devotional writer traveller folklorist and relief worker Drawing on published and unpublished sources gathered in the United States Europe and the Middle East many of which were previously unknown Alessandro Falchetta tells the story of Harris s life and works set against the background of the cultural and political life of contemporary Britain Falchetta traces the development of Harris s career from Cambridge to Birmingham the story of his seven journeys to the Middle East and of his many campaigns from religious freedom to conscientious objection The book focuses upon Harris s innovative contributions in the field of textual and literary criticism his acquisitions of hundreds of manuscripts from the Middle East his discoveries of early Christian works in particular the Odes of Solomon his Quaker beliefs and his studies in the cult of twins His enormous output and extensive correspondence reveal an indefatigable genius in close contact with the most famous scholars of his time from Hort to Harnack Nestle the Sisters of Sinai and Frazer

Calculating compassion Rebecca Gill,2016-05-16 Calculating compassion examines the origins of British relief work in late nineteenth century wars on the continent and the fringes of Empire Commencing with the Franco Prussian war of 1870 71 it follows distinguished surgeons and lady amateurs as they distributed aid to wounded soldiers and distressed civilians often in the face of considerable suspicion Dispensing with the notion of shared humanitarian ideals it examines the complex and sometimes controversial origins of organised relief and illuminates the emergence of practices and protocols still recognisable in the delivery of overseas aid This book is intended for students academics and relief practitioners interested in the historical concerns of first generation relief agencies such as the British Red Cross Society and the Save the Children Fund and their legacies today

Heritage, Culture and Rights Andrea Durbach,Lucas Lixinski,2017-05-18 Cultural heritage law and its response to human rights principles and practice has gained renewed prominence on the international agenda The recent conflicts in Syria and Mali China s use of shipwreck sites and underwater cultural heritage to make territorial claims and the cultural identities of nations post conflict highlight this field as an emerging global focus In addition it has become a forum for the configuration and contestation of cultural heritage rights and the broader politics of international law The manifestation of tensions between heritage and human rights are explored in this volume in particular in relation to heritage and rights in collaboration and in conflict and heritage as a tool for rights advocacy This volume also explores these issues from a distinctively legal standpoint considering the extent to which the legal tools of international human rights law facilitate or hinder heritage protection Covering a range of issues across Africa Asia Europe Latin America and Australia this volume will be of interest to people working in human rights heritage studies cultural heritage management and identity politics around the world This book fills an important gap in the literature on heritage and rights and in particular human rights law With articles from leading experts addressing the legal human rights dimensions of cultural heritage protection it makes a significant contribution to debates over issues such as Why should we safeguard heritage and for whom and What is the relationship between heritage safeguarding and protecting human rights These are deep questions of profound significance to individuals communities and even nations around the world and are of increasing urgency today It critically analyses the relationship between heritage and human rights that can be potentially pernicious as well as mutually reinforcing placing this analysis within the wider context and with a broad geographical scope with examinations of the heritage rights relationship in Southeast Asia Cambodia China and sub Saharan Africa Dr Janet Blake Associate Professor in Law Shahid Beheshti University Tehran Traversing the destruction of mausoleums in Timbuktu to war crimes trial by the International Criminal Court Heritage Culture and Rights explores the crucial links between human rights and the protection of cultural heritage The essays are accessible to all viewing the destruction of cultural heritage as a breach of human dignity and identity Unputdownable Professor Gillian Triggs President of the Australian Human Rights Commission This collection of essays by leading scholars though primarily Australian in origin is universal in orientation Ranging from a broad survey of the applicable laws of armed conflict to a detailed consideration of urban design in Southeast Asia the essays offer significant insights into the relationship between the protection and use of cultural heritage on one hand and fundamental human rights on the other Ultimately the mutual reinforcement of the two disciplines of law prevails over carefully acknowledged tensions between them Readers at all levels of expertise will find the book of great interest Professor James Nafziger Thomas B Stoel Professor of Law and Director of International Programs at the Willamette University College of Law British Quakerism, 1860-1920 Thomas C. Kennedy, 2001 In 1860 the British Society of Friends was a peculiar inward looking sect diminishing in numbers and influence By 1920 British Quakerism theologically liberal socially active and radically pacifist emerged from a dramatic confrontation with the Warrior State possessed of economic social and moral influence out of all proportion to its still minuscule size 20 000 This carefully researched study chronicles the story of Quakerism s transformation during one of the most momentous periods in the history of the London now British Yearly Meeting of Friends Adventure Trails in Kirstenbosch Daphne Mackie, 2012-10-18 These five imaginative trails capture the magic of nature within Kirstenbosch South Africa s best known botanical garden Eager young adventurers will have hours of fun discovering prehistoric gems exchanged forests secret gardens mysterious mirror pools and much more Each route description is accompanied by a map and beautiful photographs and illustrations while the text is packed with information about striking and surprising trees flowers birds insects animals and tidbits from history as well as descriptions of the best places to play and relax This whimsical guide is a must have companion for any young adventurer setting off into Cape Town s much loved garden The Pacifist Impulse in Historical Perspective International Conference On The Pacifist Impulse I, Peter Brock, International Conference on the Pacifist Impulse in Historical perspec, 1996-01-01 This volume of twenty three essays appears in recognition of the emergence of peace history as a relatively new and coherent field of learning these essays were presented at an international conference The Pacifist Impulse in Historical Perspective Together the essays in this book explore the ideas and activities of persons and groups who for two millennia have rejected war and urged non violent means of settling conflicts Lonely Planet Cape Town & the Garden Route Lonely
