Heed The Thunder:

Heed the Thunder Jim Thompson, 2024-09-24 In the rural town of Verdon Nebraska in the early days of the 20th century you can't go ten feet without running into one of the Fargos So Grant Fargo argues to his grandfather Lincoln it's perfectly all right that he's desperately in love with his first cousin Bella she's the only source of intelligent conversation for miles and in a town like Verdon it would be hard not to end up with a relative of one kind or another Before it all plays out men will be murdered jailed tarred and feathered or worse and while everyone in the Fargo clan would kill for the family deeds God might just end up with them instead In Heed the Thunder one of Thompson's earlier works Thompson's signature style collides with a sweeping picaresque of the American prairie in a multigenerational saga that's one part Steinbeck two parts Dostoyevsky and all Jim Thompson Heed the Thunder James Meyers Thompson, 1946 The Post-Utopian

Imagination M. Keith Booker, 2002-01-30 In America the long 1950s were marked by an intense skepticism toward utopian alternatives to the existing capitalist order This skepticism was closely related to the climate of the Cold War in which the demonization of socialism contributed to a dismissal of all alternatives to capitalism This book studies how American novels and films of the long 1950s reflect the loss of the utopian imagination and mirror the growing concern that capitalism brought routinization alienation and other dehumanizing consequences The volume relates the decline of the utopian vision to the rise of late capitalism with its expanding globalization and consumerism and to the beginnings of postmodernism In addition to well known literary novels such as Nabokov's Lolita Booker explores a large body of leftist fiction popular novels and the films of Alfred Hitchcock and Walt Disney The book argues that while the canonical novels of the period employ a utopian aesthetic that aesthetic tends to be very weak and is not reinforced by content The leftist novels on the other hand employ a realist aesthetic but are utopian in their exploration of alternatives to capitalism The study concludes that the utopian energies in cultural productions of the long 1950s are very weak and that these works tend to dismiss utopian thinking as naive or even sinister The weak utopianism in these works tends to be reflected in characteristics associated with postmodernism Heed the Thunder Jim Thompson, 1946 Savage Art Robert Polito, 1996-10-01 Robert Polito
