The Story of My Life Helen Keller,1921 The Medical Missionary ,1904 Helen Keller's Journal, 1936-1937 Helen Keller,1938 Failure, Fascism, and Teachers in American Theatre James F. Wilson,2023-10-24 This timely and accessible book explores the shifting representations of schoolteachers and professors in plays and performances primarily from the twentieth and twenty first centuries in the United States Examining various historical and recurring types such as spinsters schoolmarms presumed sexual deviants radicals and communists fascists and emasculated men teachers Wilson shines the spotlight on both well known and nearly forgotten plays The analysis draws on a range of scholars from cultural and gender studies queer theory and critical race discourses to consider teacher characters within notable education movements and periods of political upheaval Richly illustrated the book will appeal to theatre scholars and general readers as it delves into plays and performances that reflect cultural fears desires and fetishistic fantasies associated with educators In the process the scrutiny on the array of characters may help illuminate current attacks on real life teachers while providing meaningful opportunities for intervention in the ongoing education wars Women Who Changed the World Candice Goucher,2022-01-24 This indispensable reference work provides readers with the tools to reimagine world history through the lens of women's lived experiences Learning how women changed the world will change the ways the world looks at the past Women Who Changed the World Their Lives Challenges and Accomplishments through History features 200 biographies of notable women and offers readers an opportunity to explore the global past from a gendered perspective The women featured in this four volume set cover the full sweep of history from our ancestral forbearer Lucy to today's tennis phenoms Venus and Serena Williams. Every walk of life is represented in these pages from powerful monarchs and politicians to talented artists and writers from inquisitive scientists to outspoken activists. Each biography follows a standardized format recounting the woman's life and accomplishments, discussing the challenges she faced within her particular time and place in history and exploring the lasting legacy she left. A chronological listing of biographies makes it easy for readers to zero in on particular time periods while a further reading list at the end of each essay serves as a gateway to further exploration and study. High interest sidebars accompany many of the biographies offering more nuanced glimpses into the lives of these fascinating women.

Helen Keller Muriel L. Dubois, 2003. A biography of Helen Keller, an author and activist for people with disabilities who was born in 1880 and lost her sight and hearing to an illness in 1882.

Who Was Helen Keller? Gare Thompson, Who HQ, 2003-08-25. At age two, Helen Keller became deaf and blind. She lived in a world of silence and darkness and she spent the rest of her life struggling to break through it. But with the help of teacher Annie Sullivan, Helen learned to read, write, and do many amazing things. This inspiring illustrated biography is perfect for young middle grade readers. Black and white line drawings throughout. Sidebars on related topics such as Louis Braille, a timeline, and a bibliography enhance readers' understanding of the subject.
