Household Archaeology in Ancient Israel and Beyond Assaf Yasur-Landau, Jennie R. Ebeling, Laura B.

Mazow, 2013-02-06 Despite the large number of well preserved domestic contexts in Bronze and Iron Age sites household archaeology has not been a common approach to studying the material culture of Ancient Israel Until recently the dictates of Biblical Archaeology led to a narrow set of questions that ignored issues such as gender status and production within the household The present volume which grew out of a session at the 2008 Annual Meeting of the American Schools of Oriental Research attempts to redress this issue The seventeen papers herein reflect innovative viewpoints on the theory and praxis of household archaeology in this region The next step in household research is presented here with the use of tailor made data collection strategies designed to answer specific questions posed by household archaeology The neglect of households and the archaeology of the activities of its members are ambitiously attended to in this volume Its exceptional breadth of various modes of inquiry coupled with the application thereof justifies the household as a topic of discussion I would highly recommend this book for institutions libraries scholars and students interested in any aspect of daily life in the southern

Levant and I very much look forward to the future research projects it will inspire Cynthia Shafer Elliot William Jessup University as a whole the work is impressive and most contributions are commendable for their sophistication in engaging interdisciplinary research in order to understand the nature and function of households in ancient Israel and surrounding areas Carol Meyers Duke University Farewell to Shulamit Carsten Wilke, 2017-04-10 The Song of Songs a lyric cycle of love scenes without a narrative plot has often been considered as the Bible's most beautiful and enigmatic book The present study questions the still dominant exegetical convention that merges all of the Song's voices into the dialogue of a single couple its composite heroine Shulamit being a projection screen for norms of womanhood An alternative socio spatial reading starting with the Hebrew text's strophic patterns and its references to historical realia explores the poem's artful alternation between courtly urban rural and pastoral scenes with their distinct characters The literary construction of social difference juxtaposes class specific patterns of consumption mobility emotion power structures and gender relations This new image of the cycle as a detailed poetic frieze of ancient society eventually leads to a precise hypothesis concerning its literary and religious context in the Hellenistic age as well as its geographical origins in the multiethnic borderland east of the Jordan In a Jewish echo of anthropological skepticism the poem emphasizes the plurality and relativity of the human condition while praising the communicative powers of pleasure fantasy and multifarious Eros

Womer, Katzev, Helena Wylde Swiny, 2022-12-01 The Kyrenia Ship, a Greek merchantman built around 315 BC which sank off the north coast of Cyprus, was excavated between 1968 and 1972 under the direction of Michael L Katzev of the University of Pennsylvania and Oberlin College The importance of this ship lies in the exceptionally well preserved hull that provided new insights into ancient shipbuilding as well as the cargo it carried The hold was stacked with transport amphoras of various types made on Rhodes with a few examples from Samos Kos Knidos and Cyprus supplemented by a consignment of millstones iron billets and almonds The cabin pottery from Rhodes also suggests this was the vessel s home port a conclusion supported by most of the scientific ceramic analyses Its trade route included Rhodes Cyprus and the Levant with perhaps Egypt as a final destination This volume provides a detailed history of the excavation followed by definitive studies of the amphora cargo and the pottery associated with shipboard life Some of the amphora stamps suggest that the ship sank between 294 and 291 BC dates corroborated by the cabin wares The repetition of four drinking cups kantharoi oil containers gutti wine measures olpai as well as bowls and saucers suggests that the ship was sailed by a crew of four Seven bronze coins were recovered five minted in the name of Alexander the Great and one well known type of Ptolemy I produced only on Cyprus
