a Responsible Faith Donald F. Fausel, 2010-09-07 Author Donald F Fausel was raised in the pre Vatican II Catholic Church when prescribed beliefs were rarely questioned and blind obedience to authority trumped following ones conscience Through a process of developing an informed conscience and learning to think critically his journey led him to a more responsible faith while remaining in his Catholic tradition This memoir recalls Fausels life experiences his reflections on those events and how they affected his spiritual journey from his birth in 1929 his formative years his life in the seminary and ordination in 1957 his nine years in the active ministry ending with a dispensation from the Vatican in 1972 and his continued journey as a married Catholic Fausel reflects on a range of faith related issues the differences between faith and beliefs abortion and artificial birth control the doctrine of infallibility the danger of relying solely on the magisterium the charism of celibacy and mandatory celibacy the place of women in the church and the ordination of women and the effect of the new cosmology on our image of God Not only does Fausels memoir frame the events that shaped his life but provides reflections to help others in their faith journey When Hurting People Come to Church Shaunti Feldhahn, James N. week to week does not relent The labor reflected in these pages is born of the bias that all preaching can be improved with study reflection and critical assistance

How Odd of God William H. Willimon,2015-10-09 Election is a strange word when used in theology It brings to mind old debates about what God might or might not have done before the foundation of the world But viewed apart from that historical baggage the word election is about a central gospel idea that in Jesus not only does God choose to be God for us but chooses us to be for God The calling of the disciples in the gospels is a story of election of how God chooses to transform the world by choosing us to be messengers and agents of that transformation So it is says William Willimon that election becomes not just the content of our preaching but the means as well God chooses preachers How unlikelyhow oddis it that God should entrust the proclamation of the gospel to well us This unpredictable electing God reaches out to save the world and then leaves it in the hands of preachers to get the word out Through us through our stammering tongues and faltering hearts the preached word becomes the Word of God If you wonder why you drag yourself into the pulpit every Sunday if you worry that your sermons aren t reaching past the front pew then read this book and be encouraged God chooses God chooses preachers God chooses you
