concerns Yutaro's superiors. Previous explorers who learn it as a matter of standard procedure go insane. Therefore his boss orders him not to learn the language. Fortunately one alien woman speaks Cyrillic, the galactic lingua franca. A gorgeous guide, Lavita, Yutaro needs and wants nothing else. Until he receives the news via special message. During a test, an anti-matter bomb loses its hyperspace navigational signal. Instead of blowing up a lifeless planet in a remote solar system, it appears close to a planet where lives an intelligent species. It crash-lands in a wilderness region of that planet, Lia. The missile's force field continues to keep the anti-matter suspended in a perfect vacuum. But nobody knows how much damage the crash caused, so nobody knows how long before the force field malfunctions, allowing the anti-matter to touch ordinary matter. ka boom. No, Lia. His agency gives Yutaro the instructions to disarm the missile. But Yutaro must reach it himself. He must travel through a hostile rain forest, the Lia themselves avoid. During the storm season, he hires porters who see no reason to risk their lives. Outlaws and powerful predators threaten. And then another human shows up, a woman, Vardi. Yutaro knows she must represent Earth's empire, his enemy. But how could she know about the anti-matter bomb? And would she really set it off, dying with tens of millions of Lia and Yutaro so his government gets punished for breaking intergalactic treaties? Sworn to silence, Yutaro lies to Lavita, not realizing to Lia, truthful speech equals life itself. To keep her on his side, to save both their lives and millions of other Lia, Yutaro promises to learn the Lia language. He tries to grasp the concept of a language where every word functions as a verb. And soon it begins to drive him insane. According to Lavita, it drives him toward sanity for the first time in his life. Can he reach and disarm the anti-matter bomb before the missile's physical condition deteriorates, the force field fails, and the anti-matter encounters ordinary matter and therefore explodes, destroying the entire planet? The Time is Now Christa Boske, 2022-08-01. High school students, teachers, community members, and leaders come together in this innovative book to share the profound influence of artmaking and justice-oriented work. Authors paint vibrant images of being empowered and engaging in social change. Throughout their art-based meaning-making, authors pose critical questions and unlock possibilities. Their first tellings regarding the power of art provide readers with a lens to understand how they navigate injustices they endure and ways in which artmaking is a vehicle for transformation. Their artmaking is a call for change. Authors emphasize how artmaking bridges relationships and brings diverse community members together with purpose. Together they engage in new understandings of self and other. Authors identify how their arts-based collaborations publicly showcase their justice-oriented work but more importantly promote possibility and hope. Youth explore how artmaking plays a vital role in promoting collective efficacy and engaging diverse communities in social transformation. Artmaking mobilizes people. And once activated, these authors utilize their newly cultivated communities to foster justice-oriented work throughout schools and communities. Their justice-oriented artmaking affords community members opportunities to respond in new ways by embracing community strengths and students' lived experiences This authentic collaboration empowers the artmaker and community to promote justice oriented work and practices centered on diversity and inclusivity

Christa Boske's edited book The Time is Now provides readers with a profound sense of what it means to live through injustice The book though is not just a collection of heartbreaking stories but a chronicle of triumphs as the previously unheard are finally given a voice through artmaking In chapter after deeply moving chapter I was struck by the simultaneous vulnerability and bravery of the artists who shared their stories What was clear was that artmaking was a form of awakening for the artmakers awakening to social justice issues awakening to their ability to connect to the community through art and even awakening to their own value which for so many had been wholly unrecognized prior to this experience This book comes at a time of deep reflection on equity diversity and inclusion in our nation and the stories remind us that our children are absorbing these conversations They are living these experiences and their voices are an essential part of the dialogue
