

Empowered Parenting

When children have the right amount of agency within the parent-child dynamic, it enables their mental well-being. They will simultaneously see their parents as leaders they can trust, and will learn to trust their own decisions. However, when there are power struggles between a child and a parent, it can cause stress and tension for everyone. Do you give your child too much power over you?

Check all that apply. If you check off more than a couple of the points, your child-parent dynamic may be imbalanced.

☐ I often ignore my child's poor behavior because they will just do what they want regardless of what I say.

☐ My child is given an equal vote in my decision-making process about matters related to the family.

☐ I prefer to be more of a friend to my child than an authority figure.

☐ My child is able to make me change my parenting decisions and choices.

☐ I use bribery to make my child listen to me.

☐ I often find myself on the back foot or justifying my parenting choices to my child.

☐ My child does not ask for my permission before doing something.

☐ I am uncomfortable being in charge.

☐ I struggle to enforce natural consequences for my child.

☐ I find it difficult to know where parent-child boundaries should lie.

Awaken You Shelly Bond, 2022-01-14 In Awaken You yogi and storyteller Shelly Bond offers tangible ways of waking up to life Part guide and part memoir Shelly shares her journey of self doubt to self reflection and finally accepting love With an authentic voice she combats the inner critique as a way toward awakening to life flaws and all Inside this soulful guide are enlightened echoes of pain loss mending a broken marriage parenting acceptance healing compassion forgiveness and more Excerpts from the book Being a conscious parent is more than a thought it is a way of showing up for each and every child as the moment presents itself The false perception of parenting tells us our children need to be a certain way they need to look act think behave and test like everyone else and if they don't we have failed in the parenting realm These lies we have been fooled into believing are only putting more separation between parents and children We can stop the destruction now With the help of unconditional love compassion and forgiveness we can carve a new path for how we will parent from this moment moving forward Showing up and being a conscious parent is being open to what children are teaching us Be open to how we can grow from them and with them and work together to understand how each individual works Today is a beautiful day to be alive There is no better moment than this one there is nowhere to go nothing to do except this moment here and now Inhale a deep breath pause in between the thoughts and thank yourself for showing up followed by a sigh of relief on the exhale There is a hero within us all and dreams do come true when you hold them in your heart with belief no matter what I am inspired with love to share with you no matter your circumstances or life experiences With help we can change seemingly unchangeable events in our lives How you ask With the power of thought and intention linked with the power of loving and believing in yourself again Or for the very first time ever Speaking used to be my worst enemy I held fear of failure and purpose may as well have been on another planet beyond our solar system Yet my journey and these words are more significant than fear Allowing myself to be creative is a life with the possibility of purpose No matter the fear I still take the step I still write the words even when it s scary I write when my heart feels like exploding out of my chest when words become constricting Fear has never gotten me anywhere but down yet purpose keeps me afloat

Norms of Violence Aimée X. Delaney, 2021-03-29 Norms of Violence Violent Socialization Processes and the Spillover Effect for Youth Crime explores the degree to which violent socialization processes both at the macro and micro levels are associated with youth criminal behavior Based on a quantitative test of an integrated theory of social control and culture of violence the author argues that violent socialization is a process involving physical violence exposure to violence and pro violent communications All three dimensions in combination with national level indicators of violence contribute to a norm of violence which at a national level spills over into other dimensions of society including the family environment This book seeks to answer if violent socialization processes truly control youth behavior Various quantitative methods are used to demonstrate how violent socialization tends to be more prevalent in nations with indicators of violence compared to nations without such indicators The spilling over of violence into socialization processes creates a context of violence normalized as a form of social control which exacerbates youth criminal behavior within pro violent nations This book is unique in propelling a more thorough explanation of international youth crime by focusing on both victimization violent socialization and offending rather than arguing solely that victimization is a correlate of youth crime It provides a reference point for future comparative research offering theoretical explanations for youth crime across different nations and is essential reading for those engaged in youth and juvenile justice efforts and scholars interested in issues surrounding violence youth and justice
