Good News for Anxious Christians Phillip Cary,2010-10-01 Like a succession of failed diet regimens the much touted techniques that are supposed to bring us closer to God in our hearts can instead make us feel anxious frustrated and overwhelmed How can we meet and know God with ongoing joy rather than experiencing the Christian life as a series of guilt inducing disappointments Phillip Cary explains that knowing God is a gradual long term process that comes through the Bible experienced in Christian community not a to do list designed to help us live the Christian life right This clearly written book covers ten things Christians don't have to do to be close to God such as hear God's voice in their hearts find God's will for their lives and believe their intuitions are the Holy Spirit Cary skillfully unpacks the riches of traditional Christian spirituality bringing the real good news to Christians of all ages Opportunities and Challenges of Interprofessional Collaboration and Education, volume II Jill Thistlethwaite,Martina Müller-Schilling, Anthony Paul Breitbart,John Humphrey Victor Gilbert ,Ciraj Ali Mohammed,Sophie Schlosser,2025-04-30 Following the success of Opportunities and Challenges of Interprofessional Collaboration and Education we are pleased to present Volume II of this collection Interprofessional collaboration is essential in meeting today's health challenges which demand high flexibility and innovation Many health organizations including the World Health Organization WHO demand that interprofessional collaboration should be taught and learned globally Even so interprofessional education tools have not yet been widely implemented in the curricula of medical professions incl physicians nurses pharmacists physiotherapists etc this training usually takes place separately Collaboration is necessary in health professions education as it can allow professionals to increase their skills and help them achieve more than they would at an individual level Collaboration also allows for more open minded approaches when facing new ways of thinking When knowledge is shared healthcare employees are more encouraged to share their own ideas and concerns These achievements of interprofessionalism within health profession education not only benefit the student and employee but also optimize patient care and increase patient safety Productivity can also be increased and therefore reduce costs overall Pan Vascular Medicine Peter Lanzer,Eric J. Topol,2013-12-20 The textbook provides an interdisciplinary and integrated perspective of modern vascular cure Written by experts the text proceeds from fundamental principles to advanced concepts The book is divided into four parts each focusing on different basic concepts of vascular cure All fundamental principles of the area are clearly explained to facilitate vascular diagnostics and treatment in clinical practice It is aimed at junior practitioners and experts Resources in Education ,2000-10 Transactions of the First
