Managing Records in Global Financial Markets

Lynn Coleman, 2011 Although there are a number of publications covering records management generically very few are focused on the specific challenges of particular sectors and fewer still on current regulatory legal and governance issues associated with managing records in global banking and finance businesses This timely book fills this gap by exploring these complex issues fully and offers strategies and examples of best practice to meet the recordkeeping challenges to which they give rise in corporate and commercial banking enterprises operating in global capital markets The examples and case studies encompass recordkeeping in investment banking asset management brokerage and other financial services which serve global markets and the book will be of particular significance to the financial sector However covering as it does the issues that arise from operating across borders and jurisdictions it will also be of relevance to multi national businesses in other sectors The key chapters cover setting the scene background and concepts regulatory and legal compliance common trends in financial services balancing risk and return litigation related issues recordkeeping approaches Whilst the expert team of authors are careful to ensure that the book reflects recognized records management principles the accessible language used will assure its value to information professionals and others without a formal records management background Readership This much needed textbook will be essential reading for records managers archivists and information professionals who manage records in the financial sector It will also be invaluable for individuals engaged in a wide range of disciplines who rely on records to meet the increasing number of legal and regulatory obligations to which institutions engaged in global banking and finance are now subject These include compliance professionals data protection officers governance professionals regulators and risk managers senior managers and directors chief operating officers and IT specialists
