How to Live the Good Life: Arthur Jackson, 2019-04-03 Preposterous challenging stimulating A note of caution this is not an easy read Nor is it for the detached uninvolved person The author invites readers to accompany him on a journey of self discovery and provides a road map to boot rarely presented in such a clear and comprehensive way The breadth and depth of Arthur Jackson s knowledge and experience become obvious early on as he presents a plethora of views from well known and lesser known philosophers psychiatrists psychologists mathematicians and others who influenced modern Western ideologies This is a compendium of knowledge and insight nonpareil truly a masterwork Adrienne Juliano member Foundation for Mind Being Research Arthur Jackson s book is the product of his lifelong struggle to find a naturalistic alternative to traditional folk religions like Christianity Judaism Hinduism capable of providing comparable emotional support This effort led to what is now recognized as a science of religion and ethics a religion of wisdom providing guidance to any person interested in making moral and ethical choices I believe that until a concrete science of religion and ethics exists and organizes to apply its findings humanity will continue to struggle to create these things How to Live the Good Life A User s Guide for Modern Humans is a fascinating and eye opening guide aimed at helping people experience more joy and achieving their full positive potential

The Reflective Life Valerie Tiberius, 2010-03-25 How should you live Should you devote yourself to perfecting a single talent or try to live a balanced life Should you lighten up and have more fun or buckle down and try to achieve greatness Should you try to be a better friend Should you be self critical or self accepting And how should you decide among the possibilities open to you Should you consult experts listen to your parents do lots of research Make lists of pros and cons or go with your gut These are not questions that can be answered in general or in the abstract Rather these questions are addressed to the first person point of view to the perspective each of us occupies when we reflect on how to live without knowing exactly what we are aiming for To answer them The Reflective Life focuses on the process of living one's life from the inside rather than on defining goals from the outside Drawing on traditional philosophical sources as well as literature and recent work in social psychology Tiberius argues that to live well we need to develop reflective wisdom to care about things that will sustain us and give us good experiences to have perspective on our successes and failures and to be moderately self aware and cautiously optimistic about human nature Further we need to know when to think about our values character and choices and when not to A crucial part of wisdom Tiberius maintains is being able to shift perspectives to be self critical when we are prepared for it but not when it will undermine our success to be realistic but not to the extent that we are immobilized by the harsh facts of life to examine life when reflection is appropriate but not when we should lose ourselves in experience
