A 'Social Turn' in the European Union? Jacek Kubera, Tomasz Morozowski, 2020-04-08 Social Europe is a key topic in the construction of the EU and its institutions This volume examines the current state of and perspectives for Social Europe as well as key issues in European social policy including the posting of workers the impact of the free market and regulations on social convergence work automation digitalisation taxation and democracy in the workplace The aim of this volume is to identify a course to be followed in integrating the EU's social policies and point to areas in which co-operation between member states is likely to produce best results While a Social Europe was previously seen to be a natural consequence of political and economic integration it is now viewed as a separate area that requires active policies to preserve the European project The EU's big question today concerns the level at which this policy should be pursued the volume's contributors outline difficulties with harmonising social policies across the Union but they nevertheless argue that owing to the common challenges faced by Europe the idea of a Social Europe must not be abandoned and requires specific action The volume consists of 11 chapters written by a variety of expert authors analysing the idea of a Social Europe and proposing ways in which it could be put into practice Social policy can no longer be seen as derived from economic policy but rather as a separate driver of development that could be of interest to the northern southern and eastern states of the EU Jacek Kubera PhD Assistant Professor Faculty of Sociology Adam Mickiewicz University in Pozna Tomasz Morozowski PhD candidate Faculty of Political Science and Journalism Adam Mickiewicz University in Pozna and analyst at the Pozna Institute for Western Affairs
