How To Succeed In Marriage Looking Up:

The Secret Success of Marriage BRANFORD B YEBOAH, 2015-05-18 Prayer has always been a vital part of Christian life. By studying the prayers of men of God in the Scriptures you will begin to understand the concept of prayer. The men whose prayers moved God to act were ordinary men like us. Nevertheless, they knew the power of prayer and its benefits. The prayer these men prayed was not ordinary prayer but intense prayer. People who pray with God have a relationship with Him. If you carefully study Scripture you will notice that the way the prophets prayed reveals how married couples should pray to move God to intervene in their failing marriages. Their prayer demonstrates the principles that can be gleaned and clearly identified and which if applied to marital life can work wonders. When studied, the prayers of these great men who walked with God provide a wealth of insight. The New Testament offers us prayer to which we even better relate. The Gospels centre on key events in the life of Christ including examples of prayer. These examples do not only give us insight into the heart of Christ but also give us key instructions on how to pray.

She did not yield to the victimizations of corrupt minds nor to the temptations of apathy and pessimistic thinking; rather, she saw everything optimistically and through many hardships achieved her life's ambitions.

Nakano,2022-03-31 In East Asia s largest cities hundreds of thousands of women remain single into middle age and beyond giving rise to a demographic transformation with profound implications for their societies Labeled in the media as loser dogs and parasites in Japan and leftover women in mainland China and Hong Kong single women in East Asia are criticized for being choosy selfish and overly independent Based on ethnographic research and interviews with more than a hundred single women in Shanghai Hong Kong and Tokyo Making Our Own Destiny is the first study to comprehensively compare the views and experiences of single women living in these three great cities that stand at the forefront of the region's movement toward later marriage and rising singlehood. This well researched book explores how single women attempt to take advantage of unprecedented opportunities for success in education and work while navigating marriage and family expectations. Unlike their counterparts in Europe and North America many do not have romantic partners and most do not have children. What do these women want? How do they see themselves and their place in society? What are their values, goals, and dreams? As they work to balance opportunities with expectations, single women in urban East Asia find themselves deeply embedded in the caregiving systems of their societies. In Shanghai, author Lynne Nakano finds single women rushing to marry to enter intergenerational relationships of care. In Hong Kong, they consider the risks of marriage as they tend to the needs of natal and extended families. In Tokyo, many single women hope to marry to have children, while others find a place for themselves in their families as elder caregivers. Nakano's intimate portrayals not only expose meticulously planned family strategies gone awry, engagements broken, and careers abandoned, but also highlight the experiences of women embracing the joys of remaining single. Hers is a fascinating study of modern women finding meaning in their lives while offering an insightful glimpse into the future of urban families in an age of low fertility and long transitions into adulthood. Psychology, 1928
