Face In The Mirror Faye Moskowitz, 1995-09-30 A beautiful exploration of the difficult and affirming relationship between mothers and their daughters in the lives of Jewish women In the Face of Jinn Cheryl Howard Crew, 2006-01-24

Christine and Elizabeth Shepherd are on a buying trip in India for their California silk business when Elizabeth mysteriously disappears In search of her sister Christine ventures alone into Afghanistan and Pakistan disguised in the traditional garb of Islam and often living among the women of the region enduring the crushing oppression of Sharia Christine painfully gains a new understanding of her own country and family as she navigates the mysterious tribes of the Pashtuns has a dangerous encounter with the Taliban and learns to fear the Jinn the devils that dominate the superstitions of the people she must understand in order to survive An impressive first by a Hollywood insider explores the deeply hostile reception two American sisters receive when they penetrate the tightly patriarchal society of Muslim culture Winning and intensely moving Kirkus The nonstop action and gripping plot twists should keep readers entranced Publishers Weekly Cheryl Howard Crew writes with penetrating insight while she straps you in and takes you on a thrill ride of twists turns and sudden fear that doesn't let go until the last page Jean M Auel In the Face of Jinn brings its audience into uncharted regions of a woman's heart while exploring the unfamiliar fascinating and sometimes horrifying worlds of Afghanistan India and Pakistan a taut thriller Walter Mosley The Face on Film Noa Steimatsky, 2017-01-03 The human face was said to be rediscovered with the advent of motion pictures in which it is often viewed as expressive locus as figure and even as essence of the cinema But how has the modern technological mass circulating art revealed the face in ways that are also distinct from any other medium How has it altered our perception of this quintessential incarnation of the person The archaic powers of masks and icons the fashioning of the individual in the humanist portrait the modernist anxieties of fragmentation and de figuration these are among the cultural precedents informing our experience in the movie theatre Yet the moving image also offers radical new confrontations with the face Dreyer's Passion of Joan of Arc Donen's Funny Face Hitchcock's The Wrong Man Bresson's enigmatic Au hasard Balthazar Antonioni's Screen Test Warhol's filmic portraits of celebrity and anonymity are among the key works explored in this book In different ways these intense encounters manifest a desire for transparency and plenitude but especially in post classical cinema they also betray a profound ambiguity that haunts the human countenance as it wavers between image and language between what we see and what we know The spectacular impact of the cinematic face is uncannily bound up with an opacity a reticence But is it not for this very reason that like faces in the world it still entralls us
