Facing The Snow Visions Of Tu Fu:

Facing the Snow Fu Du, 1988 Du Fu Du Fu, 2013-08-21 Du Fu 712 770 is one of the undisputed geniuses of Chinese poetry still universally admired and read thirteen centuries after his death Now David Young author of Black Lab and well known as a translator of Chinese poets gives us a sparkling new translation of Du Fu's verse arranged to give us a tour of the life each chapter of poems preceded by an introductory paragraph that situates us in place time and circumstance What emerges is a portrait of a modest yet great artist an ordinary man moving and adjusting as he must in troubled times while creating a startling timeless body of work Du Fu wrote poems that engaged his contemporaries and widened the path of the lyric poet As his society one of the world's great civilizations slipped from a golden age into chaos he wrote of the uncertain course of empire the misfortunes and pleasures of his own family the hard lives of ordinary people the changing seasons and the lives of creatures who shared his environment As the poet chases chickens around the yard observes tear streaks on his wife's cheek or receives a gift of some shallots from a neighbor Young's rendering brings Du Fu's voice naturally and elegantly to life I sing what comes to me in ways both old and modern my only audience right now nearby bushes and trees elegant houses stand in an elegant row too many if my heart turns to ashes then that's all right with me from Meandering River Classical Chinese Literature: From antiquity to the Tang dynasty John Minford, Joseph S. M. Lau, 2002 Contains English translations of Chinese writings drawn from throughout a period of four hundred years including poems drama fiction songs biographies and early works of philosophy and history arranged chronologically and by genre with introductory quotes and comments Encyclopedia of Literary Translation Into English: A-L O. Classe, 2000 Style, Wit and Word-Play Tao Tao Liu, Chan Sin-wai, Laurence Wong, 2011-12-08 This collection of essays is dedicated to the memory of David Hawkes 1923 2009 who is remembered as a pre eminent translator and interpreter of Chinese literature into English his most famous work being the translation of the classic eighteenth century Chinese novel the Hongloumeng or The Story of the Stone The first part of the collection consists of studies on him and his works the second part on the art of translation into English from Chinese literature All the essays are written by scholars in the field from Britain America Australia and Hong Kong Hypermedia and Literary Studies Paul Delany, George P. Landow, 1991 The essays in Hypermedia and Literary Studies discuss the theoretical and practical opportunities and challenges posed by the convergence of hypermedia systems and traditional written texts Consider a work from Shakespeare Imagine as you read it being able to call up instantly the Elizabethan usage of a particular word variant texts for any part of the work critical commentary historically relevant facts or oral interpretations by different sets of actors This is the sort of richly interconnected immediately accessible literary universe that can be created by hypertext electronically linked texts and hypermedia the extension of linkages to visual and aural material The essays in Hypermedia and Literary Studies discuss the theoretical and practical opportunities and challenges posed by the convergence of hypermedia systems and traditional written texts They range from the theory and design of literary hypermedia to reports of actual hypermedia projects from secondary school to university and from educational and scholarly to creative applications in poetry and fiction
