Harding,2019-09-16 Understand these Four Unknown Facts of Reality and you will never think the same again These Four Facts of Reality will answer every possible question about life Anything the human mind can ask is clearly delineated in these four magnificent and clear cut truths They will explain the seeming paradox of truth the self contradictions the reason we sabotage ourselves the fears we labor under the emotional pains we keep repeating the unrelenting frustrations of coming and going the inability to have faith in our own true nature and most of all why we cannot comprehend simple obvious truths about us For those ready and ripe individuals these four facts are a great blessing They are simplicity itself and make psychology philosophy metaphysics and all spiritual beliefs so clear that peace and faith are a natural result Love's Vision Troy Jollimore,2011-07-05 Love often seems uncontrollable and irrational but we just as frequently appear to have reasons for loving the people we do In Love s Vision Troy Jollimore offers a new way of understanding love that accommodates both of these facts arguing that love is guided by reason even as it resists and sometimes eludes rationality At the same time he reconsiders love's moral status acknowledging its moral dangers while arguing that it is at heart a moral phenomenon an emotion that demands empathy and calls us away from excessive self concern Love is revealed as neither wholly moral nor deeply immoral neither purely rational nor profoundly irrational Rather as Diotima says in Plato's Symposium love is something in between Jollimore makes his case by proposing a vision view of love according to which loving is a way of seeing that involves bestowing charitable attention on a loved one This view recognizes the truth in the cliché love is blind but holds that love's blindness does not undermine the idea that love is guided by reason Reasons play an important role in love even if they rest on facts that are not themselves rationally justifiable Filled with illuminating examples from literature Love's Vision is an original examination of a subject of vital philosophical and human concern The Power of Love Henry Drummond, 2019-04-21 This exceptional book covers the most important topics of Drummond's interest love humility sincerity and honesty It will certainly bring wisdom and blessing to its readers Contents Love the Greatest Thing in the World Lessons From the Angelus Pax Vobiscum First An Address to Boys The Changed Life the Greatest Need of the World Dealing With Doubt Eternal Life Stones Rolled Away The Man Who Is Down One Way to Help Boys An Appeal to the Outsider or the Claims of Christianity Life on the Top Floor The Kingdom of God and Your Part in It The Three Elements of a Complete Life A Life for a Life The Ideal Man The City Without a Church The Programme of Christianity The FACTS of Love Rhona Schwartz, 2019-07 The F A C T S of Love is a relationship workbook for singles couples or anyone stuck in a deadlocked relationship cycle of hurt and frustration With the F A C T S of Love you will learn what the possibilities are for your lifelong success and fulfillment in a relationship Once we decide to become conscious and intentional about applying these principles and concepts within ourselves and our intimate relationships they will begin to transform us in subtle but deeply penetrating ways The F A C T S of Love is not the only answer to your relationships worries and woes but it is one of most realistic and transformative answers for our modern relationship challenges today The F A C T S will help you learn how to grow and experience greater joy love fulfillment and passion They are the keys to rapidly transforming your intimate relationship from how it is now to how you really want it to be All's Love Yet All's Law James Logan Gordon, 1914

Our Human Herds Stephen Martin Fritz, 2020-09-04 Our Human Herds presents a new theory in moral and political philosophy called dual morality The theory proposes that just as the physical senses of sight smell taste touch and hearing evolved to help us navigate our physical environment two independent moral senses evolved to guide us to success in our social world One prioritizes cooperation the other competition The first bases moral justification on the egalitarianism that emphasizes our equal worth the other finds moral justification in the inequalities that allow us to distinguish better from worse Liberal and conservative are merely the names given to the political manifestations of these two forms of moral expression just as socialist and capitalist describe their economic manifestations and personality and character their psychological ones Our Human Herds addresses what it means to be a human being why we fight about the things that divide us and why we unite behind the ideas that draw us together The book examines all aspects of human social behavior revealing how and why we often disagree in our approaches to education history war crime pleasure happiness politics science and religion This is a learned thoroughly researched study and dazzlingly bright The effervescent approach to writing makes its pages fly by Studies as brilliant as this one deserve a far wider audience An engrossing and mind expanding examination of morality Kirkus Reviews Book Review A vast philosophical study charts the shifting moral landscape while tackling the weightiest question of human existence what is the meaning of life Humanity's moral framework remains in a constant state of reconstruction As the author points out in his opening chapter Two hundred years ago if a woman was raped and became pregnant we'd kill the rapist and spare the baby Today we spare rapist and kill the baby Centuries ago many cultures condoned polygamy today we put people in jail for it Over the course of this weighty tome which is just shy of 1 000 pages the author ponders what morality is with an emphasis on humans as grouping or herding creatures and the causes of its flux and reflux Furthermore there is an attempt to reconcile opposing philosophical theories by introducing a new conceptual model called Dual Morality proposed as an all encompassing blueprint of human morality The study is logically structured divided into four sections The Theory of Dual Moralism The Explanation including investigations of the group and the self The Derivations which considers family country religion and science nature technology and finally The Extrapolations a far reaching look at everything from pleasure and happiness to suicide murder and abortion The author possesses the rare skill of being able to explore himself with an enviable ease drawing on palatable references to popular culture For example Comedian Woody Allen said he laughs at his own jokes when they first come to him because humor originates in the unconscious When his conscious mind hears them for the first time it is as if they came from another place and so we are in a way an audience to our own humor This approach applied throughout makes complex ideas not only accessible but entertaining and enjoyable as well The result is far from the predictable dry academic thesis This is a learned thoroughly researched study and dazzlingly bright The effervescent approach to writing makes its 951 pages fly by Fritz's dedication is to that miniscule fragment of humanity who read books like this Studies as brilliant as this one deserve a far wider audience An engrossing and mind expanding examination of morality Kirkus Indie Kirkus Media LLC 6411 Burleson Rd Austin TX 78744 indie kirkusreviews

Love Matters More Jared Byas, 2020-09-08. For years Christians have argued, debated, and fought one another while speaking the truth in love, yet we are no closer to the grace-filled life Jesus modeled. Biblical scholar and popular podcast host of The Bible for Normal People Jared Byas casts a new vision for the Christian life that is built not on certainty but on the risk of love. A biblically based Christian life is not grounded in having all the answers but in a living relationship. This ultimately shifts our focus from collecting the right answers to loving others deeply and authentically. With stories and insights drawn from his years as a pastor, professor, and podcast host, Jared Byas calls us back to the heart of the Bible: that truth is only true when it is lived out in love. In a refreshing voice that is both witty and profoundly revelatory, Jared unpacks the concept of truth, its meaning, and why we so often fight over it. He makes a compelling case for how what we believe is less important than how we believe it, and that more than anything else, telling the truth in love is about following Jesus. For anyone who has ever felt forced to choose between truth and love, acceptance and rightness, this book offers a path forward beyond truth wars and legalistic religion to a love that matters more.

Truth Be Told Bruce L. Taylor, 2023-08-24. In his latest volume of sermons for the Common Lectionary Revised, homilist Bruce Taylor has compiled more of his traditional and story form proclamations for the Sundays and feast days from Pentecost through Christ the King in Year B of the three-year lectionary cycle. Preached in various congregational settings, these sermons are theologically rich, sacramentally sensitive, biblically centered, and ecumenically minded, articulating God's love for all of creation and emphasizing the profound implications of discipleship as well as the urgency of compassionate and prophetic

Christian witness in both word and deed Truth Be Told like its predecessors in Taylor s first and second journeys through the lectionary will prove a welcome companion for preachers educators seminary students and devotional readers who will all find it to be an incisive and insightful exploration of the spiritual genius of the liturgical year and the unitive practice of preaching from common texts The book exemplifies how preaching honestly and with integrity from Mark s Gospel and the accompanying lectionary readings can shape interaction with the elements of the liturgy to promote faithful Christian worship and prompt responsible Christian living
