Facts Need Not Be In Evidence:

Facts Need Not Be In Evidence Craig Boulton, 2005 Illinois congressman Henry Hyde once remarked that after reading Eleanor Roosevelt's editorials in the 1950s he was driven into the embrace of the Republican Party. Similarly all the liberal talking heads appearing on the cable news channels have driven this longstanding Goldwater Republican to write a response. In it the author describes Republican Values from the perspective of growing up in an entrepreneurial family and his own self employment in the financial industry. Drawing on his experiences as a Navy Midshipman while attending a private Eastern University during the turbulent 1960s and then as a Marine combat officer during the Vietnam Era when domestic terrorism was in vogue he discusses the politically correct's childish behavior from that unique perspective. As a former professional military officer and later a trained economist and financial analyst who's spent three decades successfully anticipating the impact of public policy on the financial markets the author addresses issues dominating the election of 2004. This includes the politically correct's failure to understand the war on terror understanding that their rhetoric can best be understood from the perspective of what Stalin called social fascism with the accompanying need to demonize one's opposition. Facts and

As such it is a useful reference resource on the continuing research on the judicial proof process for students and scholars. Instructor's Notes, Course 182, Military Justice, Naval Reserve Officers School United
