introduction by Joan V Gallos editor of the highly praised Organization Development A Jossey Bass Reader the author list for this invaluable resource reads like the who's who of business leadership Baptizing Business Bradley C. Smith, 2020 Historically confined to the disadvantaged ranks of the stratification system evangelical Christians have increasingly joined the corporate elite eliciting concern from some and sanguinity from others Quantitative studies of the effects of religion on executive behavior have thus far shown mixed and inconclusive effects and those few qualitative analyses that have focused on evangelical business leaders have generally emphasized conflict between religion and business but failed adequately to explore areas of consonance While evangelical executives do in fact experience conflict associated with their professional contexts this tension arises not because business and religion are inherently opposed as some have argued but because evangelical business leaders are made to feel like second class citizens by members of their own faith communities Indeed in cases of apparent conflict between faith and business evangelical executives insist that it is faith not business that must be reconceived Equipped with an array of strategies for demonstrating that business is a sacred institution and a worthy occupation evangelical business leaders hope to restore faith in business as they apply their faith in business In these evangelical executives and their accounts the spirit of capitalism defined by Max Weber as a positive attitude toward both work and wealth finds ongoing embrace and new expression with implications for understanding the so called faith at work movement evangelicalism and the role of religion among elites Living Above the Store Martin Melaver, 2009 Not Merely Sustainable Restorative A viable business is a living thing embedded in the complex web of economy community and ecology Done right business can help correct the modern stresses of environmental degradation and social fragmentation and create value for workers shareholders and additional stakeholders in the community Living Above the Store explores a road less traveled and chronicles how business can navigate a new path toward successful restorative practices Book jacket

Spiritually and Developmentally Mature Leadership Daniel E. Harris, Lori Holyfield, Linda Jones, Rhonda Ellis, Judi Neal, 2019-02-21 The book goes beyond theory to offer tools and suggestions for developing emerging leaders Inspired by the pioneering work of leadership scholar Andre Delbecq this book points towards an expanded model of leadership that incorporates an active inner life and posits that such fully human models of leadership will be essential to meet the profound challenges of the 21st Century Without presuming to provide definitive answers the text explores central questions such as What is the added value of spiritual maturity to leadership Would the integration of mature spirituality with well developed intellectual and emotional capacities produce more beneficial leadership outcomes for organizations and individuals What would a spiritually and developmentally mature emerging leader look like in 10 to 20 years How do we prepare emerging leaders for the challenges they may face and how do we model spiritually and developmentally mature leadership in ways that resonate with them Professor Andre Delbecq 1936 2016 of the University of Santa Clara created the heuristic of spiritually and developmentally mature leaders to encapsulate his observation that outstanding leaders often seemed to draw strength and wisdom from sources that are not typically studied or taught in leadership courses Thirty scholars and practitioners accepted Delbecq's heuristic as the starting point to explore spiritual components of leadership that do not easily lend themselves to quantification or clear causal links The analysis of their disciplined engagement with the heuristic forms the foundation of an exploratory, fully human understanding of leadership This analysis is supported by literature reviews including an overview of Andre Delbecq's relevant work Ultimately the authors call for further collaboration across disciplines and between research and practice to build on the conceptual constructs offered here and especially to create pedagogies for the training of spiritually and developmentally mature leaders
