David Bruce, 2006-06-01 Bride of The Funniest People in Religion and Families contains such anecdotes as these When Panamanian salsa singer Rubin Blades married Lisa Lebenzon an Anglo a white American not of Spanish descent non Spanish speaker he asked her to learn Spanish so he could speak his native language at home She finished in only seven months a Spanish course that normally took three years Dr Louis Finkelstein chancellor of the Jewish Theological Seminary of America kept a strictly kosher diet While in Paris he and a group of rabbis ate only in kosher restaurants On leaving Paris Dr Finkelstein joked I can't understand all this fuss people make about French cooking We have the same things at home A Sufi teacher spoke about the virtue of patience As he spoke a scorpion stung his foot repeatedly His followers eventually noticed the scorpion and asked the teacher why he had not moved his foot away from it The teacher replied I was discussing the virtue of patience I could hardly have spoken about patience without also setting an example of patience I would have been ashamed before God Hope without Optimism Terry Eagleton, 2015-09-09 In his latest book Terry Eagleton one of the most celebrated intellects of our time considers the least regarded of the virtues His compelling meditation on hope begins with a firm rejection of the role of optimism in life's course Like its close relative pessimism it is more a system of rationalization than a reliable lens on reality reflecting the cast of one's temperament in place of true discernment Eagleton turns then to hope probing the meaning of this familiar but elusive word Is it an emotion How does it differ from desire Does it fetishize the future Finally Eagleton broaches a new concept of tragic hope in which this old virtue represents a strength that remains even after devastating loss has been confronted In a wide ranging discussion that encompasses Shakespeare's Lear Kierkegaard on despair Aquinas Wittgenstein St Augustine Kant Walter Benjamin's theory of history and a long consideration of the prominent philosopher of hope Ernst Bloch Eagleton displays his masterful and highly creative fluency in literature philosophy theology and political theory Hope without Optimism is full of the customary wit and lucidity of this writer whose reputation rests not only on his pathbreaking ideas but on his ability to engage the reader in the urgent issues of life Page Barbour Lectures

Acting on the Absurd Gary L. Carver,2001 Packed full of stories about the human condition this book of insightful sermons based largely on texts from Paul s letter to the Romans will be invaluable to preachers teachers and laypersons Readers will serendipitously find marvelous results when one acts in faith on the absurd notion that God loves us unconditionally These messages from an outstanding preacher demonstrate that when we follow the example of Paul and faithfully try to become what God created us to be wonderful things begin to happen Gary Carver moves beyond those who find Paul s words to be complex and rigid He gives to us examples in which Paul s timeless and deep theological concepts are used to address the struggles of contemporary Christians sensitively From teenage athletes to contacts in Alcoholics Anonymous to couples struggling with marriage and a host of other human experiences Carver profoundly recalls experiences that illustrate Paul s insistence that one can experience a changed life in Christ from the Foreword Harold C Warlick Jr Professor of Religion and Minister to the University High Point University With a scholarly understanding of the Pauline writings Gary Carver uses his masterful skills as a storyteller to bring the biblical accounts to life His treatment of each passage is brought to a climax with probing ethical insight and deeply moving personal application Both laypersons and preachers will benefit greatly from a reading of these prophetic sermons laced with marvelous illustrations Thomas H Graves President Baptist Theological Seminary at Richmond To experience the preaching of Gary Carver is to find oneself in a gallery of living illustrations all pointing to Jesus Christ No cookie cutter preacher this gifted communicator is endowed both with uncommon insight into the human predicament and God's absurdly fetching grace. Read this book and discover God's spirit calling you to a more meaningful involvement following of Jesus. Timothy L. Owings, Pastor, First Baptist Church, Augusta, Georgia. Gary Carver has a vivid sense of the wonder God creates in everyday life and he has a keen eye for the human condition. His insight into the Bible and into the heart of its stories always finds the underlying story of hope even in the most hopeless looking of situations. His discoveries then make it seem quite natural and sensible to act on the absurd. Dudley Rose, Director of Field Education, Harvard Divinity School. Gary L. Carver is pastor of First Baptist Church in Chattanooga, Tennessee. He has also served as pastor of churches in Alabama and Indiana. Carver is a graduate of Samford University, B.A. and Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, M.Div. and D.Min. and has done additional graduate study at Candler School of Theology and Harvard Divinity School. Faith, Hope, and Sustainability Cybelle T. Shattuck, 2021-06-01 Faith, Hope, and Sustainability explores the experiences of fifteen faith communities striving to care for the earth and live more sustainably. A church in Maine partners with fishermen to create the first community-supported fishery so they can make a living without overfishing. A Jewish congregation in Illinois raises extra funds to construct a green synagogue that expresses their religious mission to heal the world. Benedictine sisters in Wisconsin adopt caring for the earth as part of their mission and begin restoring one hundred acres of prairie, reviving their community in the process. Presbyterians in Virginia, dismayed by air pollution in Shenandoah National Park, take courage from their conviction that God does not call us to do little things and advocate for improved national air pollution policies. Stories such as these highlight the variety of environmental actions that people of faith are enacting through congregational venues. Beyond simply narrating inspiring stories, however, this book compares these case studies to explore in detail the processes through which the communities took action. In addition to examining why faith communities engage in earth care, Cybelle T. Shattuck explores how they put intention into action and how the congregational context affects what they do. She introduces an analytical framework focusing on four domains of activity: champions, faith leaders, congregations, and organizations, to explicate the full range of factors that influence how initiatives develop and whether sustainability becomes embedded in these religious organizations. Both the framework and the information on process presented in this book will be highly useful to scholars and to people of faith interested in implementing an earth care ethic through sustainability programs.

Tubular Therapy Denise DeHaven Rogers, Debbie Strater

Sempsrott,2014-06-26 Tubular Therapy is the story of one answered prayer an unlikely friendship and the surprising ministry of two zany women This story of friendship is one crazy ride down the lazy river of life These two women write of their lives of adventure ups and downs hilarity and heartbreak that might just make you shake your head in disbelief They dare to talk about what many keep safely hidden deep inside Their story is not perfect it is unpretentious and filled with promise They celebrate the journey with joy because of their faith friendship and freedom These barefoot authors are committed to floating through life Tubular Therapy style We float awhile and talk awhile we laugh awhile and cry awhile We will all experience Gods healing touch As iron sharpens iron we will face our fears together and when we get our tushies out of the tube we will all go home better than we came Please Don't Revive Us Again! Perry C. Cotham,2019-12-23 This book is truly one of a kind Through satire and humor author Perry C Cotham colorfully shares a wealth of practical insight about church life in general and pulpit ministry specifically In Please Don t Revive Us Again he presents a unique picture of authentic Christian men and women and the joys pains and serendipities they experience along their faith journey As preaching and teaching minister Cotham offers a collection of humorous irreverent and sometimes sad stories and observations from his long career within one unique Christian tradition Informative and entertaining he discusses situations and people culled from church life ministerial training at a Christian college and the practical realities of a spiritual vocation Literally hundreds of fascinating and colorful personalities are named and stories narrated Containing a delightful mixture of the good the bad and the ugly Please Don t Revive Us Again gives insight into the life of a minister and shares the advice and lessons he learned along the way Some readers may disagree with Cotham s applications or feel discomfort with some of his stories but most will find it difficult to put this book down Durrell-Miller Letters, 1935-1980 Lawrence Durrell, Henry Miller,1998-09-19 In 1935 a young Englishman living on Corfu wrote enthusiastically to a middle aged Brooklynite who had just published a succes de scandale in Paris Tropic of Cancer turns the corner into a new life which has regained its bowels Henry Miller realizing that in Lawrence Durrell he had hooked his ideal reader responded You re the first Britisher who s written me an intelligent letter about the book Thus began a correspondence that ended only with Miller s death in 1980 nearly 1 000 000 words later The Durrell Miller Letters 1935 80 contains an extensive and representative selection of the total correspondence Almost half of the present volume has never been published before including some recently recovered lost letters in addition many passages expurgated from letters published in 1963 have been restored Editor Ian S MacNiven of the State University of New York Maritime College is quite right to regard the Durrell Miller correspondence as a dual biography of the creative lives of two of this century sgreat literary iconoclasts a biography At once as serious as Schopenhauer and as winning as wine A Smile in His Mind's Eye Ray Morrison,2005-01-01 Durrell s best known work fused Western notions of time and space with Eastern metaphysics Very little has been written about Durrell s work before the Second World War With A Smile in His Mind s Eye Ray Morrison seeks to redress this neglect Hope and Hilarity Chuck Terrill,1996-08-01 God, Creation and
