Goodbye Berlin Margaret M. Dunlop, 2016-11-20 The 24th of March 1939 was a poignant day for twelve year old Gerald Wiener He was on a train pulling out of Berlin and he was on his way to the UK to escape persecution in Nazi Germany He was one of the thousands of unaccompanied children saved by the Kindertransport Looked after by two sisters in Oxford his abilities as a scholar became apparent and from an early age he was set on the road to academic achievement There followed a distinguished career as a research scientist in Edinburgh where he made a genetic discovery that received international recognition His research department was a centre of excellence and members of his team went on to make an astonishing breakthrough in genetics the cloning of Dolly the sheep During his career Gerald was also in demand to assist agricultural development in China India the secretive North Korea and many other countries and his trips during these years are full of incident and fascinating human and social insights It was while he was on a postdoctoral fellowship in the USA that he discovered he had a large family in California He had known nothing of them as his mother and father had parted when he was only two years old His aunt and stepmother gave him compelling accounts of their escapes from Hitler via Shanghai and life under the Japanese during the War Their stories and that of Gerald himself are amazing tales of resilience and triumph over adversity This book shows how one man s life and achievements mirror the great events of the second half of the twentieth century and the opening years of the new millennium      Say Goodbye Lisa Gardner, 2008-07-15 The bestselling author of Hide and Gone draws us into the venomous mind games of a terrifying killer Come into my parlor For Kimberly Quincy FBI Special Agent it all starts with a pregnant hooker The story Delilah Rose tells Kimberly about her johns is too horrifying to be true but prostitutes are disappearing one by one with no explanation and no one but Kimberly seems to care Said the spider to the fly As a member of the Evidence Response Team dead hookers aren't exactly Kimberly's specialty The young agent is five months pregnant she has other things to worry about than an alleged lunatic who uses spiders to do his dirty work But Kimberly's own mother and sister were victims of a serial killer And now without any bodies and with precious few clues it's all too clear that a serial killer has found the key to the perfect murder or Kimberly is chasing a crime that never happened Kimberly's caught in a web more lethal than any spider's and the more she fights for answers the more tightly she's trapped What she doesn't know is that she's close too close to a psychopath who makes women's nightmares come alive and if he has his twisted way it won't be long before it's time for Kimberly to SAY GOODBYE      Racing in Place Michael Martone, 2011-08-15 Is it truth or fiction Memoir or essay Narrative or associative To a writer like Michael Martone questions like these are high praise Martone's studied disregard of form and his unruffled embrace of the prospect that nothing no story no life is ever quite finished have yielded some of today's most splendidly unconventional writing Add to that an utter weakness for pop Americana and what Louise Erdrich has called a deep affection for the ordinary and you have one of the few writers who could pull off something like Racing in Place Up the steps of the Washington Monument down the home stretch at the Indy Speedway and across the parking lot of the Moon Winx Lodge in Tuscaloosa Alabama Martone chases and is chased by memories and memories of memories He writes about his grandfather's job as a meter reader those seventies era hotels with atrium lobbies and open glass elevators and the legendary temper of basketball coach Bob Knight Martone as Peter Turchi has said looks under stones the rest of us leave unturned So what is he really up to when he dwells on the make of Malcolm X's eyeglasses or the runner up names for Snow White's seven dwarfs In My Mother Invents a Tradition Martone tells how his mom as the dean of girls at a brand new high school in Fort Wayne Indiana constructed a nostalgic past out of nothing Sitting at their dining room table she came up with everything from the school colors orange and brown to the yearbook title Bear Tracks Look and then look again Martone is saying You never know I never know
