The Natural History of the Traditional Quilt John Forrest, Deborah Blincoe, 2011-01-19 Traditional quilts serve many purposes over the course of a useful life Beginning as a beautiful bed covering a quilt may later function as a ground cover at picnics until years of wear relegate it to someone's ragbag for scrap uses Observing this life cycle led authors John Forrest and Deborah Blincoe to the idea that quilts like living things have a natural history that can be studied scientifically They explore that natural history through an examination of the taxonomy morphology behavior and ecology of quilts in their native environment the homes of humans who make use keep and bestow them The taxonomy proposed by Forrest and Blincoe is rooted in the mechanics of replicating quilts so that it can be used to understand evolutionary and genetic relationships between quilt types The morphology section anatomizes normal and abnormal physical features of quilts while the section on conception and birth in the life cycle discusses how the underlying processes of replication intersect with environmental factors to produce tangible objects This methodology is applicable to many kinds of crafts and will be of wide interest to students of folklore anthropology and art history Case studies of traditional quilts and their makers in the Catskills and Appalachia add a warm human dimension to the book

Piecing It All Together Kathleen Lindsey, 2019-03-05 Piecing it all Together A Collection of Memoirs depicts various events in my life The book symbolizes my lifelong story pieced into my imaginary quilt God and his grace is the strong doubled threads that helped piece my quilted blocks together into a God given masterpiece Many years ago God gave me a special gift the art of quilt making In my autobiography I reveal how I have pieced my sometimes difficult life together As a child I always wanted answers to questions like Why do bad things happen to good people I was born in the Baby Boomer era which was a time when children were seen and not heard As an adult I have become a voice of utterance through my deliverance in which God has set me free Through the years I have faced many unpredictable and grievous encounters I lost my mom at the age of six When my son was killed by a drunk driver I wanted to be angry with God Why God why my son There are so many bad people in this world Lord But He sent me a comforter the Holy Spirit I faced many difficult times during my life Times when I was hungry the time when I almost drowned multiple times I was overcome by carbon monoxide received beatings so much that it broke my spirit and other occurrences that young children or adults should not have to suffer for the sake of pleasing others As a young bride I encountered numerous marital problems Eventually prayer and perseverance made our marital union grow stronger My faith in God helped me to rise above my difficult dilemmas He was always there beside me and guiding my footsteps Today I enjoy the pleasures and satisfaction of events that life brings I chose joy Being a child of God daughter of the King and woman of faith I thank Him every day for loving me forgiving me helping me to forgive others and bringing me comfort and joy in my darkest hours I thank Him for lifting me up with laughter and joy when I am overwhelmed with love and happiness He is a Mighty Good God
