Public law, however, gave impetus to the "decentralizing" or "devolution" movement in the United States, strengthening the power of state and local governments and creating a new balance of power between the federal and state governments.

Abstract—The authors examined the effects of a 12-week, supervised, low-impact aerobically and resistance training program on the physical fitness and health of 10 sedentary, middle-aged women. The program was designed to improve cardiovascular fitness, muscular strength, and body composition. The results of the study showed that the program had a positive effect on the women's physical fitness and health. The authors concluded that a supervised, low-impact aerobically and resistance training program is an effective way to improve the physical fitness and health of sedentary, middle-aged women.
