Kathleen Smith was born and raised in Brooklyn, New York, in an Irish-Italian family. She currently lives in Upstate New York with her husband and children. Good-bye Brooklyn Hello Upstate tells the story of how she grew up and ended up moving upstate. Whether it be racial injustice, political unrest, climate change, starvation, or mass shootings, the world is an extremely scary place. Terry Gordon, however, likes to look at the lighter side of life, which he does in this memoir. He shares his observations of daily life along with a little off-the-wall sense of humour to put a smile on your face. He also shares life lessons such as: Take a few minutes at the end of every day to reflect on what you accomplished and think about how to make tomorrow a better day. Each one of us can improve, whether it's through kinder words, thoughtful actions, or avoiding getting angry at others who are not having a good day or are plain ignorant. If we all did a little to help others by listening, giving, and being respectful, the world would be a much happier place. Learning is a lifelong adventure, and if the author can learn something new every day, so can you. Mother Tongues Barbara Johnson, 2003-11-30. Charles Baudelaire, Walter Benjamin, and Sylvia Plath make up the odd trio on which this book is based. It is in the surprising and revealing links between them, links pertaining to troublesome mothers, elusive foreign languages, and professional disappointments that Barbara Johnson maps the coordinates of her larger claims about the ideal of oneness in every area of life and about the damage done by this ideal. The existence of sexual difference precludes an original or ultimate one who would represent all of mankind; the plurality of languages makes it impossible to think that one doesn't live in translation, and the plurality of the sexes means that every human being came from a woman's body and some will reproduce this feat while others won't. In her most personal and deeply considered book about difference, Johnson asks: Is the mother the guardian of a oneness we have never had? The relations that link mothers, bodies, words, and laws serve as the guiding puzzles as she searches for an answer. The Reading Crisis Jeanne Sternlicht CHALL, Vicki A. Jacobs, Luke E. Baldwin, Jeanne Sternlicht Chall, 2009-06-30. How severe is the literacy gap in our schools? Why does the nine-year-old child from a culturally disadvantaged background so often fall victim to the fourth-grade slump? Although the cognitive abilities of these children at risk may be consistent with the norm, their literacy development lags far behind that of other children. In The Reading Crisis, the renowned reading specialist Jeanne Chall and her colleagues examine the causes of this disparity and suggest some remedies. Using Chall's widely applied model of reading development, the authors examine the strengths and weaknesses in the reading, writing, and language development of children from low-income families in an attempt to identify the onset of their difficulties. They show how, in the transition from learning the medium to understanding the message the demands on children's reading skills become significantly more complex. The crucial point is fourth grade when students confront texts containing unfamiliar words and ideas that are beyond the range of their own experience. According to Chall's findings, the lack of specific literacy skills, not cognitive factors, explains the deceleration in the reading and writing development of low-income children. The authors outline an active role for the schools in remedying weaknesses in literacy development and give suggestions for the home and the community. Their recommendations address both practical issues in instruction and the teacher-student dynamic that fosters literacy development.

Fingerprints Of Jesus Jennifer Cheshire, 2024-05-15. Fingerprints of Jesus is a journey through a woman's life who knew the pain of abuse and great loss at a very young age. As a small child, fear gripped most of her days. However, in the midst of the darkness was her precious grandmother who was her only light. Her grandmother's love, memories, and teachings live in the quiet, safe places in her mind and heart. The constant struggle with anxiety, fear, and worthlessness paved the way for difficulties to come. The damaging scars carried into teen and adulthood for this woman are shown in vivid color. Through the winding pathways of life, stumbling over mistakes and disappointments, she finds true hope. When all seemed lost and the bottom couldn't be any further down, somehow there's hope. This hope is only found in Jesus Christ. Could the prayers her sweet widowed grandmother prayed over her live on in heaven forever? Come and see how Jesus intervenes in the life of brokenness; she has found herself. Still carrying the scars from a painful childhood, she's desperately trying to be a good wife and mother. With certain failure and the pain of a broken marriage gripping her soul, God has other plans. See how God can transform lives and change the entire trajectory of her family Through every twist and turn see God s perfect timing working for the good of all Watch the bonds of unforgiveness break as the love of Jesus is felt in the heart and soul of this woman Though the walk was not easy she could face the morning because Jesus was by her side Step by step see how the beautiful truths told in the Bible come to life in the lives of this family As you read you too will see the fingerprints of Jesus N'Digo Legacy Black Luxe
