

Sean and Will sit in the bleachers at the mostly empty park. They look out over a small pond, in which a group of schoolchildren on a field trip ride the famous Swan Boats.

WILL

So what's with this place? You have a swan fetish? Is this something you'd like to talk about?

SEAN

I was thinking about what you said to me the other day, about my painting. I stayed up half the night thinking about it and then something occurred to me and I fell into a deep peaceful sleep and haven't thought about you since. You know what occurred to me?

WILL

No.

SEAN

You're just a boy. You don't have the faintest idea what you're talking about.

Good Will Hunting A Screenplay:

Good Will Hunting Ben Affleck, Matt Damon, 1997-12-25 As director Gus Van Sant observes in the introduction to Matt Damon's and Ben Affleck's screenplay Good Will Hunting the two young actors somewhat resemble the characters they play in the film they're best friends and Affleck who plays Chuckie habitually chauffeurs Damon Will who doesn't drive Van Sant says we can see how badly Damon drives by watching the film's last scene in which he is actually driving the car with the camera mounted on it But Damon and company write better than he drives this script contains some of the boldest best monologues since Pulp Fiction Van Sant and cast member Robin Williams helped the young actors tame the tigers in their cranial tanks trimming the script into a precision instrument Though the stills from the film are not perfectly matched to their places in the script this story remains as much a joy to read as it is to watch on the big screen Constructing Dialogue Mark Axelrod, 2013-11-07 Unlike most screenwriting guides that generally analyze several aspects of screenwriting Constructing Dialogue is devoted to a more analytical treatment of certain individual scenes and how those scenes were constructed to be the most highly dramatic vis-à-vis their dialogue In the art of screenwriting one cannot separate how the scene is constructed from how the dialogue is written They are completely interwoven Each chapter deals with how a particular screenwriter approached dialogue relative to that particular scene's construction From Citizen Kane to The Fisher King the storylines have changed but the techniques used to construct scene and dialogue have fundamentally remained the same The author maintains that there are four optimum requirements that each scene needs in order to be successful maintaining scenic integrity advancing the storyline developing character and eliciting conflict and engaging emotionally Comparing the original script and viewing the final movie the student is able to see what exactly was being accomplished to make both the scene and the dialogue work effectively Good Will Hunting Matt Damon, Ben Affleck, 1998 Wildly charismatic impossibly brilliant totally rebellious Will Hunting is a mathematical genius who lives on the fringes of society refusing to accept the talent that he has for maths and taking instead a job as a cleaner in a university A psychologist takes him under his wing and tries to help Hunting resolve the traumas that beset him Matt Damon and Ben Affleck lifelong friends and two of the best actors of their generation have written a film that is funny ironic and profoundly moving one that is filled with empathy for society's outsiders and their struggle to fight their way through life Screenwriting is Rewriting Jack Epps, Jr., 2016-01-28 If there is one skill that separates the professional screenwriter from the amateur it is the ability to rewrite successfully From Jack Epps Jr the screenwriter of Top Gun Dick Tracy and The Secret of My Success comes a comprehensive guide that explores the many layers of rewriting In Screenwriting is Rewriting Epps provides a practical and tested approach to organizing notes creating a game plan and executing a series of focused passes that address the story character theme structure and plot issues Included are sample notes game plans and beat sheets from Epps' work on films such as Sister Act and Turner and Hooch Also featured are exclusive interviews with Academy Award winning screenwriters
