Goodbye My Love and Other Stories Marcus A. Stockton, 2017-11-16 There are two ways that a person can walk in this life You can either walk into your blessing or walk into your curse How can you do that You can do that by doing things that are natural for you to do Success at anything is not by chance or by luck It is seeing things you have already been doing brought to fruition Therefore successful people are not surprised by their success They actually knew it would happen before it happened The blessing is the reward for a life of integrity and commitment to achieving goals and setting standards What is the curse It is all the negatives that we curse our lives with the negative friends the negative conversations the negative situations An unsuccessful person who continues to put himself or herself in those situations in those conversations and around those people will bring a curse to their lives that they will never be able to shake I am grateful for the friends and the relationships that I have been blessed with in my life They have helped me to overcome all the obstacles of life And that is what any man needs incarcerated or free people who believe in him when no one else in the world does The Wife and

South of Tradition Trudier Harris, 2010-04-15 With characteristic originality and insight Trudier Harris Lopez offers a new and challenging approach to the work of African American writers in these twelve previously unpublished essays Collectively the essays show the vibrancy of African American literary creation across several decades of the twentieth century But Harris Lopez's readings of the various texts deliberately diverge from traditional ways of viewing traditional topics South of Tradition focuses not only on well known writers such as Zora Neale Hurston Ralph Ellison James Baldwin and Richard Wright but also on up and coming writers such as Randall Kenan and less known writers such as Brent Wade and Henry Dumas Harris Lopez addresses themes of sexual and racial identity reconceptualizations of and transcendence of Christianity analyses of African American folk and cultural traditions and issues of racial justice Many of her subjects argue that geography shapes identity whether that geography is the European territory many blacks escaped to

from the oppressive South or the South itself where generations of African Americans have had to come to grips with their relationship to the land and its history For Harris Lopez south of tradition refers both to geography and to readings of texts that are not in keeping with expected responses to the works She explains her point of departure for the essays as a slant an angle or a jolt below the line of what would be considered the norm for usual responses to African American literature The scope of Harris Lopez s work is tremendous From her coverage of noncanonical writers to her analysis of humor in the best selling The Color Purple she provides essential material that should inform all future readings of African American literature
