Using Literature to Support Skills and Critical Discussion for Struggling Readers Nancy S. Williams, 2004

Emphasizing the need to develop higher-level thinking skills and critical discussion with intermediate and middle school struggling readers, Williams uses quality children's literature as a springboard to help readers understand and use descriptive vocabulary and figurative language, make personal connections with text, create and solve text-related mathematical problems, promote an active engaged discussion and critical analysis of the story, and the important issues raised in text extend meaning through research and writing art and drama. To help teachers match student to text, literature selections are categorized according to interest: e.g., mystery, sports, humor, identity, solving problems, genre, and include reading level, interest level, and number of pages. Discussion questions and extension activities specific to over 100 children's literature selections provide opportunities for students to ask questions, discuss, and use descriptive language, make predictions and inferences, evaluate story elements, and critically reflect on character perspectives and social issues raised in the text. All questions are appropriate for individual work, special education classrooms, general education, and inclusion classrooms and help teachers facilitate literature discussion groups, book club discussion, and response writing, self-regulated reading, guided reading, and whole-class discussions.

Heroes of the Bob Marshall Wilderness John Fraley, 2020-09-07

Follow author John Fraley as he traces the lives and times of past and present heroes of the Bob Marshall Wilderness from old timers like Joe Murphy to Smoke Elser and on to the present. Over the past century, these heroes have ridden, packed, and hiked from one end of the Bob to the other, and they've helped make the wilderness what it is today. You'll ride along on horse and mule treks and wrecks and discover the sport of trout wrangling. You'll meet the fluorescent hunter White River Sue and the black-clad backpacker. You'll battle packrats, fish-eating deer, tricky bears, and a tree-hugging criminal. Sit back and read about a dog rescue, smokejumper adventures, kids raised in the wilderness, and the first study of grizzlies in the Bob. Witness a tense moose-lassoing rodeo and meet a backcountry rooster named Bob Marshall, the first live chicken to attempt a traverse of the Bob. The heroes in this book have ridden and hiked hundreds of thousands of miles through the Bob Marshall Wilderness Complex. Now come along with them and celebrate their contributions, their challenges, and their fun times.
