Will it follow the model of the Western capitalist democracies as those who applied the economic shock therapy of the early

90s hoped or will it chose its own distinct path of development In this history of Russia from 1917 to the present Alexander

Chubarov teases out certain themes developed in his previous book on tsarist Russia The Fragile Empire One of the key factors to Russia's distinctiveness is its halfway location in the center of the Eurasian landmass This lends an inevitability to the traditional cultural schism between Westernizing reformers and Slavophiles Neither approach says Chubarov will work
