Gospel (On the Road To) Emmaus Edward Joseph Clemmer,2011-03-17 Born in Indiana Dr Edward J Clemmer is a social psychologist by profession He now lives with his Maltese wife Jane Zammit and enjoys dual citizenship with Malta His four sons by a previous marriage continue to live in America His personal journey with the Lord into this Gospel on the Road to Emmaus began in a moment of grace on 12th September 2003 as Ed was on his way to the priest The context for this initiation was the Feast of Exultation of Holy Cross 14th September as the source of every grace is derived from the sacrifice of Jesus Christ on the cross The gospel is explained for us as the author and reader journey with the Lord as potential disciples Our journey begins at Bethany near the Jordan with John the Baptist preaching and baptizing Part 1 continues up to the Transfiguration of Jesus Volume One reaches its climax before the Lords final journey to Jerusalem when Jesus returns to Bethany where the Baptist had preached Volume Two resumes with the Lords healing and preaching at Bethany near the Jordan Part 2 concludes in Bethany near Jerusalem with the Lords dinner celebration with Lazarus after Jesus had raised Lazarus from the dead This celebration anticipates the Lords death and resurrection and ours in Christ Part 3 takes up the Grand Liturgy of the Lords New Creation with Holy Week The book initially concludes with a retrospective of the incarnation of Jesus as God with us and with the parallel coming of the Spirit at Pentecost Then in the Part 4 conclusion of this gospel our post Emmaus journey with the risen Lord returns to our post Pentecost life in the Holy Spirit The authors seven year personal journey through this Gospel Emmaus ends in 2010 with the Feast of Sukkot just as when the Lord also had anticipated the Holy Spirit But the Lord provides us with his own conclusion although he had healed ten lepers as they were on their way to the priest only one had returned to give thanks

The Rhetorical Impact of the Sēmeia in the Gospel of John Willis Hedley Salier, 2004 Revision of the author's thesis Ph D University of Cambridge 2003 The Core of the Fourth Gospel Sydney Temple, 1975 Preaching Johns Gospel Theworld it Imagines, The Institute Tie, 1904 The Johannine Exegesis of God Daniel Rathnakara Sadananda, 2014-12-02 Johannine Exegesis of God is a stimulating study of the explicit and implicit theological language of the Johannine community It exegetically explores crucial questions concerning the Fourth Evangelist's language used to characterize God It makes a sojourn into the relationship between Johannine Christology and Theology It examines the dialogue dynamics of a theological conversation between those who do not share the same theological affirmations and enumerates how the Johannine community derives benefit becomes enriched and learns inclusiveness through its dialogue conflict with its pluralistic environment In approaching and interpreting the Gospel narrative the implications of Theology in the Johannine community's struggle for legitimacy identity and existence become clear The Theology of the Johannine community shows a creative dialect with its sociological context and its experiential theologising makes its theological language authentic clear and precise Old Testament Quotations in the Fourth Gospel M. J. J. Menken, 1996 From the very beginning of Christianity Jesus followers have tried to legitimize their views of him with the help of the Scriptures This means that if we wish to understand the beginning of the Christian church and of Christian theology we have to examine the early Christian use of the Old Testament A conspicuous way of using the Scriptures consists in directly quoting from them Eleven OT quotations in the Fourth Gospel are the topic of this study These eleven quotations in fact the majority of John's OT quotations differ from the known versions of the OT but are not free paraphrases of the OT text in some cases it is not immediately clear from which passage precisely the evangelist quotes This state of affairs raises the questions which OT passages in which versions John used and how and why the quotations were modified In this study the questions of source and of redaction are dealt with in their interrelationship Can we adequately explain the form of a quotation by taking into account Johannine redaction of an OT passage in a textual form which we know which we can reasonably argue Results of research in the field of early Jewish and early Christian exegetical techniques and devices are of course taken into account Each of the eleven quotations is scrutinized on the points of source and redaction It appears that John mostly used the LXX but that where that translation did not suit his purposes he either translated the Hebrew himself or used an other translation He modified the quotations in agreement with extant exegetical rules and for christological reasons This study gives new insight into an aspect of the early Christian use of Scripture The Branch Preston T.

Massey, 2018-07-24 The thesis of the book may be stated simply it is an argument based upon the four prophetic texts of Jer 23 5 Zech 3 8 6 12 and Isa 4 2 as a foundational pattern for the four Gospels These four prophetic texts it will be argued mention a King Branch a Servant Branch a Man Priest Branch and a Lord God Branch This study seeks to show how Matthew presents Jesus as the King Branch Mark as the Servant Branch Luke as the Priest Man Branch and John as the Lord God Branch Consideration will also be given to explore the ramification of the four living Beings as described in Rev 4 6 7 Given the sum total of this sequence of literary facts the conclusion of this book will raise a number of possible implications One of these implications will offer the conclusion that the four evangelists could not have written their four Gospels solely on their own human unaided efforts Jesus of Nazareth Paul Verhoeven, 2010-04-06 Building on the work of the great Biblical scholars of the twentieth century Rudolf Bultman Raymond Brown Jane Schabert and Robert Funk founder of the Jesus Seminars among others filmmaker Paul Verhoeven disrobes the mythical Jesus to reveal a man who is after all startlingly familiar to us a man who has much in common with other great political leaders throughout history human beings who believed that change was coming in their lifetimes Gone is the Jesus of the miracles gone the son of God gone the weaver of arcane parables whose meanings are obscure In their place Verhoeven gives us his vision of Jesus as a complete man someone who was changed by events the leader of a political movement and perhaps most importantly someone who in his speeches and sayings introduced a new ethics in which enlightened behavior and the embrace of human contradictions transcend the mechanics of value and worth that had defined the material world before Jesus Coming to a deeper understanding of the historical Jesus has been a lifelong passion for Verhoeven who for the last quarter century has been among the very few nonacademics participating in the Jesus Seminars Verhoeven assumed that one day he would make a film of the life of Jesus Then he realized that it must be a book Steeped in Biblical scholarship but free of the institutional biases

whether academic or religious that so often dictate the terms of discussion of the historical Jesus Jesus of Nazareth is a book that builds a bridge reaching all the way back to Jesus s lifetime all the way forward to the present and from biblical scholars to lay readers whose interest might be personal or political Heaven on Earth Francis J. Connelly,2011-10-10 With the coming of Jesus the Christ the covenant of the New Testament is created Therein can be found new spiritual guidelines that those who love God will gravitate to as a consequence of being saved In the Sermon on the Mount Jesus specifically identifies eight states of blessedness that are pleasing to God In other verses of Scripture contained in the New Testament additional spiritual attitudes and responses are described that help believers to live in accordance with the will of God The degree to which we live in accordance with Gods will presented herein as codes is the degree to which we attain heaven on earth leading to perfect happiness with Jesus in the world to come The codes consist of commandments and other rules of behavior kernels of wisdom and truths revealed by Jesus and spiritual guidelines intended to assist us on the road to salvation They will be numbered and discussed as encountered sequentially in the New Testament starting with the gospel according to Matthew and ending with the book of Revelation The appropriate verses of Scripture from which each code is derived will accompany them and be highlighted Explanatory remarks are included whenever greater clarity or additional emphasis is needed All codes and commentary are derived from the words of Jesus as recorded in the New Testament of the Holy Bible

Prophecy Robert J. Miller,2015-12-11 It s obvious that Jesus fulfilled prophecies about the promised Messiah or so the gospels make it seem But the real story is more complex and more compelling In hindsight we can see that Jesus had help fulfilling prophecy The gospel writers skillfully manipulated prophecies carefully lifting them out of context creatively reinterpreting them even rewriting them to match what Jesus would do in fulfilling them The evangelists also used the prophecies themselves to shape the very stories that show their fulfillment This book describes in detail how Christian authors helped Jesus fulfill prophecy Studies of Greek oracles the Dead Sea Scrolls translations of the Hebrew Scriptures into Greek and Aramaic and the writings of Josephus explore the interpretive techniques that paved the way for the New Testament's manipulation of prophecy This book analyzes how the belief that Jesus fulfilled prophecy became an argument to justify a new notion the view that Christians had replaced Jews as God's chosen people An aggressive anti Judaism is analyzed in chapters on patristic theologians such as Justin Martyr and Augustine who embedded it into the argument from prophecy The book concludes with an ethical argument for why Christians should retire the argument from prophecy Nez Perce National Forest (N.F.), John Day Planning Unit ,1974
