Sorkh Razil to the pipe dreams of Malibu's top nanny Zonker Harris and from the no more chill pills intervention by Obama's aides to the way cool love of a headbanging war vet and his MIT grad gal Doonesbury marches wildly on. What else is guaranteed to make you think, feel nostalgic and laugh out loud at least once a page? Karen Holt O Magazine The Long Road Home G. B. Trudeau, 2012-05-29 After losing his leg and his trademark helmet B D returns home from Iraq to begin a remarkable journey of healing in this Doonesbury book. On a road outside Fallujah an RPG blows apart a Humvee and upends the life of a former football star named B D. As a medevac chopper swoops down the wounded Guardsman hears "Not your time bro. Not today." The Long Road Home: One Step at a Time chronicles seven months of cutting edge cartooning during which B D and readers of the strip experienced the kind of personal transformation no one seeks. B D survives first response Baghdad triage, evacuation to Landstuhl and visits by innumerable celebs, both red and blue in hue. He's awed in turn by morphine, takes no guff, nurses his fellow amputees high tech prostheses that cost more than luxury cars and his family including the daughter who hand delivers succor, one aspirin at a time. From rebuilding tissue to rebuilding social skills to rebuilding lives B D's inspiring, insightful and darkly humorous story confirms that it can take a village or at least a ward to raise a soldier when he's gone down. Thank you for getting blown up offers one of B D's visiting players. Replies the coach: Just doing my job. The Weed Whisperer G. B. Trudeau, 2015-11-10 I don't read Doonesbury. He glorifies drugs. Former White House Press Secretary Marlin Fitzwater: Welcome to the age of pivots. Two centuries after the Founding Fathers signed off on happiness Zonker Harris and nephew Zipper pull up stakes and head west in hot pursuit. The dream: Setting up a major grow facility outside Boulder, Colorado and becoming bajillionaire producers of artisanal marijuana. For Zonk it's the crowning reset of a career that's ranged from babysitting to waiting tables. For Walden grad Zip it's a way to confront 600,000 in student loans. Elsewhere in Free Agent America newlyweds Alex and Toggle are struggling. Twins Eli and Danny show up during their mother's MIT graduation but a bad economy dries up lab grants compelling the newly minted PhD to seek employment as a barista. Meanwhile eternally blocked writer Jeff Redfern struggles to keep the Red Rascal legend in his own mind, franchise alive while aging music icon Jimmy T endures by adapting to his industry's new normal. I can make music on my schedule and release it directly to the fans. He's living in his car. G. B. Trudeau's Doonesbury is now in its fifth decade and has chronicled American life through eight presidents, four generational cohorts and innumerable paradigm shifts. His political sitcom Alpha House starring John Goodman is available on DVD and by streaming from Amazon Prime. For the record Trudeau always inhaled back in the day. As President Obama once explained: That was the point. Home Front Heroes Benjamin F. Trudeau,2013-11-05 In a class by itself Jules Feiffer on Doonesbury This all color volume celebrates the marriage of Alex and Toggle an event which optimistically confirms that life like Doonesbury rolls on Indeed how remarkable that the strip has so embraced and occupied its era that three generations of one family have married within its panels Gathering their kith and kin around them at Walden the wise but wounded soldier artist and the brilliant but insecure techhead make a promising team for the years ahead well rounded yet squared away Doonesbury's fifth decade finds the largest rep company in the history of comic strips fully and widely engaged Like so many flesh and blood fellow citizens key characters now struggle with dramatic career change and job stress And the wars in Iraq and Afghanistan continue to reverberate through the lives of others as the strip illuminates their experiences with an attentiveness unparalleled in popular culture Amid the relentless unfolding of unexpected storylines the strip's second and third generation characters increasingly take center stage and the youngest regular Sam comes of age literally in the blink of an eye as the newlyweds prepare to welcome twins It never ends and how lucky for readers Most comic strips run out of creative energy after their initial inspiration notes Garry Wills

U.S. Militarism and the Terrain of Memory John Bechtold, 2024-08-01 This book analyzes how the Iraqi city of Fallujah became registered as a setting for military heroics in American memory In 2004 the U S military conducted two disastrous assaults in Fallujah Iraq More than 1 000 citizens were killed and according to the military's own estimate upwards of 200 000 people were displaced because of the violence Yet despite this human catastrophe the kind of information that emerged in the public domain during the battle foregrounded the soldier's experience in war while effacing the destruction of Iraqi bodies This tendency to foreground the soldier body is a direct result of the military's intervention in what they conceptualize as the information environment This book draws from the second assault in Fallujah as a case study to explicate the military's investment in this perspectival space which is a consequence both of the mediatization of contemporary war and of the need to influence knowledge considered unfavorable to military operations In short the military enlists the media in their targeting process to produce information that is then deployed as persuasive force to modify the beliefs of specific target populations When the cultural texts produced by the media are remediated in the public domain after war they can be thought of as martial constructs because they originated during war through the military's systemized attempt to influence knowledge That is these texts trace to a specific battlefield objective This book reframes the notion of propaganda as a generalized public relations strategy into a more acute and coordinated attempt to decontextualize specific knowledge in the information environment This book will be of much interest to students of media and communication studies war studies memory studies and international relations
