R. S.* Richard Bowdler Sharpe, 1893 Picturing Animals in Britain, 1750-1850 Diana Donald, 2007-01-01 From fine art paintings by such artists as Stubbs and Landseer to zoological illustrations and popular prints a vast array of animal images was created in Britain during the century from 1750 to 1850 This highly original book investigates the rich meanings of these visual representations as well as the ways in which animals were actually used and abused What Diana Donald discovers in this fascinating study is a deep and unresolved ambivalence that lies at the heart of human attitudes toward animals The author brings to light dichotomies in human thinking about animals throughout this key period awestruck with the beauty and spirit of wild animals people nevertheless desired to capture and tame them the belief that other species are inferior was firmly held yet at the same time animals in stories and fables were given human attributes though laws against animal cruelty were introduced the overworking of horses and the allure of sport hunting persisted Animals are central in cultural history Donald concludes and compelling questions about them then and now remain unanswered Nature's Palette Patrick Baty, 2021-05-18 A gorgeous expanded edition of Werner's Nomenclature of Colours a landmark reference book on color and its origins in nature First published in 1814 Werner's Nomenclature of Colours is a taxonomically organized guide to color in the natural world Compiled by German geologist Abraham Gottlob Werner the book was expanded and enhanced in 1821 by Patrick Syme who added color swatches and further color descriptions bringing the total number of classified hues to 110 The resulting resource has been invaluable not only to artists and designers but also to zoologists botanists mineralogists anatomists and explorers including Charles Darwin on the famous voyage of the Beagle Nature's Palette makes this remarkable volume available to today's readers and is now fully enhanced with new illustrations of all the animals plants and minerals Werner referenced alongside each color swatch Readers can see tile red in a piece of porcelain jasper the breast of a cock bullfinch or a Shrubby Pimpernel They can admire Berlin blue on a piece of sapphire the Hepatica flower or the wing feathers of a jay Interspersed throughout the book are lavish feature pages displaying cases of taxidermy eggs shells feathers minerals and butterflies with individual specimens cross referenced to the core catalog Featuring contributions by leading natural history experts along with more than 1 000 color illustrations and eight gatefolds Nature's Palette is the ideal illustrated reference volume for visual artists naturalists and anyone who is captivated by color Exotic Ornithology Philip Lutley Sclater, Osbert Salvin, 1869 John Gould's Extinct and Endangered Birds of Australia Sue Taylor, 2012 In 1838 John Gould the father of Australian ornithology visited Australia with the intention of gathering

European Vision and the South Pacific Third Edition Bernard Smith, 2022-10-05 Bernard Smith 1916 2011 was arguably Australia's greatest art historian and one of the most important humanist thinkers internationally on ideas concerning cultural contact His European Vision and the South Pacific first published in 1960 showed how the ideas of the Enlightenment and the empirical structuring of scientific and geographical knowledge during the great eighteenth century voyages of discovery affected notions of identity both for Europeans and the Indigenous peoples with whom they came in contact Not only did Smith's investigation of art science and imperialism of this period explore the conditions of frontier contact it opened up the dialogue on de colonisation and allowed us to think beyond or after it He was undoubtedly a pioneer of post colonialism and the book remains a lighthouse in Pacific studies The republication of European Vision and the South Pacific is an essential part of the discourse reframing the interconnections and crossing of cultural boundaries between Europe and antipodean societies This new edition of a significant Australian classic also coincides with the 250th anniversary of Cook's landing on the east coast of Australia and complements new scholarship on territorialisation colonialism and the politics of exchange between metropolitan centres and peripheries A new introduction by Sheridan Palmer situates the book in a contemporary context The Eponym Dictionary of Birds Bo Beolens, Michael Watkins, Michael Grayson, 2020-03-19 A comprehensive dictionary listing all the people whose names are commemorated in the English and scientific names of birds Birdwatchers often come across bird names that include a person's name either in the vernacular English name or latinised in the scientific nomenclature Such names are properly called eponyms and few people will not have been curious as to who some of these people were or are Names such as Darwin Wallace Audubon Gould and Gilbert White are well known to most people Keener birders will have yearned to see Pallas's Warbler Hume's Owl Swainson's Thrush Steller's Eider or Br n nich s Guillemot But few people today will have even heard of Albertina's Myna Barraband's Parrot Guerin's Helmetcrest or Savigny's Eagle Owl This extraordinary work lists more than 4 000 eponymous names covering 10 000 genera species and subspecies of birds Every taxon with an eponymous vernacular or scientific name whether in current usage or not is listed followed by a concise biography of the person concerned These entries vary in length from a few lines to several paragraphs depending on the availability of information or the importance of the individual's legacy. The text is punctuated with intriguing or little known facts unearthed in the course of the authors extensive research. Ornithologists will find this an invaluable reference especially to sort out birds named after people with identical surnames or in situations where only a person's forenames are used. But all birders will find much of interest in this fascinating volume a book to dip into time and time again whenever their curiosity is aroused.
