she meant to do Thank God her answer was as firm as mine She said she was ready to sacrifice her life in preference to any inducement he held out as to the renouncement of the true religion of Jesus The moulwi then asked if I had read the Koran My answer was Yes He then said I could not have read it with a view to be profited by it but simply picked passages to argue with Mohammedans However he said he would allow us three days time to think over the matter and then he would send for us and read a portion of the Koran if we believed and became Mohammedans all right and good but if otherwise our noses were to be cut off We further said there was no occasion to wait till that time as long as God continues His grace we will not renounce our faith so he had better at once order our heads to be taken off He then pointed to his people to take us to prison It was a part of the Sarie where travellers put up guarded by his men with drawn swords not very far from him While on the way to the prison I raised my heart in praise and adoration to the Lord Jesus for giving us grace to stand firm and to overcome all the temptations which the moulwi held The "I Wills" of Christ: Thoughts Upon Some of the Passages in which the Words "I Will" are Used by the Lord Jesus Christ Philip Bennett Power,1863 The "I Wills" of Christ ...
