Käthe Kollwitz, 1981 Traces of a Jewish Artist Kerry Wallach, 2024-03-12 Graphic artist, illustrator, painter and cartoonist
Rahel Szalit 1888-1942 was among the best known Jewish women artists in Weimar Berlin. But after she was arrested by the French police and then murdered by the Nazis at Auschwitz, she was all but lost to history and most of her paintings have been destroyed or gone missing. Drawing on a range of primary and secondary sources, this biography recovers Szalit's life and presents a stunning collection of her art. Szalit was a sought-after artist, highly regarded by art historians and critics of her day. She made a name for herself with soulful, sometimes humorous illustrations of Jewish and world literature by Sholem Aleichem, Heinrich Heine, Leo Tolstoy, Charles Dickens and others. She published her work in the mainstream German and Jewish press and she ran in artists' and queer circles in Weimar Berlin and in 1930s Paris. Szalit's fascinating life demonstrates how women artists gained access to Jewish and avant-garde movements by experimenting with different media and genres. This engaging and deeply moving biography explores the life, work and cultural contexts of an exceptional Jewish woman artist. Complementing studies such as Michael Brenner's The Renaissance of Jewish Culture in Weimar Germany, this book brings Rahel Szalit into the larger conversation about Jewish artists, Expressionism and modern art. Käthe Kollwitz - ich will wirken in dieser Zeit Käthe Kollwitz, 1986 „And on this Rock I Will Build My Church“. A New Edition of Schaff's „History of the Reformation 1517-1648“ Muhammad Wolfgang G. A. Schmidt, 2017-08 This voluminous work on Church History by Philip Schaff (1819-1893) was originally published between 1858 and 1893 in eight volumes in the USA and covers the period from the beginnings of Biblical Christianity in A.D. 1 to the History of the Reformation in Germany and Switzerland 1517-1648. Being still a popular text in North America, this work had been out of print for over a century and has now been carefully edited and reformatted for republication in four volumes, each of them containing the text of two volumes of the original edition. Schaff's work, unlike other works in the field, covers a multitude of church history-related aspects from church doctrine, policy, events and processes to aspects of social, moral and family life, arts and more. This is the fourth and final volume in this series and is a special edition covering the period of the Reformation from 1517-1648 that ends with the Peace Treaty concluded 1648 in Münster, Westphalia, following the long period of the Thirty Year War. M/E/A/N/I/N/G
Susan Bee, Mira Schor, 2000-12-27 A collection of writings from the influential feminist art journal M/E/A/N/I/N/G with a forward by Johanna Drucker Monatsschrift Für Das Deutsche Geistesleben, 1904 Visual Communication David Machin, 2014-04-30 The primary goal of the volume on Visual Communication is to provide a collection of high-quality, accessible papers that offer an overview of the different academic approaches to Visual Communication, the different theoretical perspectives on which they are based, the methods of analysis used and the different media and genre that have come under analysis. There is no such existing volume that draws together this range of closely related material generally.

found in much less related areas of research including semiotics art history design and new media theory The volume has a total of 34 individual chapters that are organized into two sections theories and methods and areas of visual analysis The chapters are all written by quality theorists and researchers with a view that the research should be accessible to non specialists in their own field while at the same time maintaining a high quality of work The volume contains an introduction which plots and locates the different approaches contained in it within broader developments and history of approaches to visual communication across different disciplines as each has attempted to define its terrain sometimes through unique concepts and methods sometimes through those borrowed and modified from others Käthe Kollwitz; Ich will wirken in
