Deacon, 2024-09-19 Like many of their male peers women artists have used their chosen mediums to explore and express their reactions to the violence of war which they frequently experienced firsthand The 345 named artists discussed in this book come from diverse backgrounds across hundreds of years The book divides the 652 covered works of art into five general categories those that provide support for the war effort those that oppose war and or support peace those that document the impacts of war on the individuals who fight and the civilians who experience it those that commemorate and memorialize the events and participants in war and general representations of those who fight While most of the women who documented the impact of war on those who experienced it were professional artists self taught artists have told equally compelling stories in their works Whether working in a studio or on the battlefield the women s professionalism and dedication allowed them to convey the impact of war powerfully      List of Women Artists Exhibiting with the Womens International Art Club, 1900-1966 Womens International Art Club, 19??      Interfaces Sidonie Smith, Julia Watson, 2002 Charts the ways that woman artists have represented themselves and their life stories      Women's Studies Linda Krikos, Cindy Ingold, 2004-08-30 This truly monumental work maps the literature of women s studies covering thousands of titles and Web sites in 19 subject areas published between 1985 and 1999 Intended as a reference and collection development tool this bibliography provides a guide for women s studies information for each title along with a detailed often evaluative review The annotations summarize each work s content its importance or contribution to women s studies and its relationship to other titles on the subject Core titles and titles that are out of print are noted and reviews indicate which titles are appropriate as texts or supplemental texts This definitive guide to the literature of women s studies is a must purchase for academic libraries that support women s studies programs and it is a useful addition to any academic or public library that endeavors to represent the field A team of subject specialists has taken on the immense task of documenting publications in the area of women's studies in the last decades of the 20th century. The result is this truly monumental work which maps the field covering thousands of titles and Web sites in 19 subject areas published between 1985 and 1999. Intended as a reference and collection development tool, this bibliography provides a guide for women's studies information for each title along with a detailed, often evaluative review. The annotations summarize each work's content, its importance or contribution to women's studies, and its relationship to other titles on the subject. Most reviews cite and describe similar and contrasting titles, substantially extending the coverage. Core titles and titles that are out of print are noted, and reviews indicate which titles are appropriate as texts or supplemental texts. Taking up where the previous volume by Loeb, Searing, and Stineman left off, this is the definitive guide to the literature of women's studies. It is a must purchase for academic libraries that support women's studies programs and a welcome addition to any academic or public library that endeavors to represent the field. International Women Stage Directors Anne Flitsos, Wendy Vierow, 2013-10-15 A fascinating study of women in the arts. International Women Stage Directors is a comprehensive examination of women directors in twenty-four diverse countries. Organized by country, chapters provide historical context and emphasize how social, political, religious, and economic factors have impacted women's rise in the theatre, particularly in terms of gender equity. Contributors tell the stories of their home country's pioneering women directors and profile the most influential women directors practicing today, examining their career paths, artistry, and major achievements. Contributors are Ileana Azor, Dalia Basiouny, Kate Bredeson, Mirenka Cechov, Mari Heleen Coetzee, May Farnsworth, Anne Flitsos, Laura Ginters, Iris Hsin-chun Tuan, Maria Ignatieva, Adam J. Ledger, Roberta Levitow, Jiangyue Li, Lliane Loots, Diana Manole, Karin Maresh, Gordon McCall, Erin B. Mee, Ursula Neuerburg, Denzer Claire Pamment, Magda Romanska, Avra Sidiropoulou, Margaretta Swigert, Gacheru Alessandra Vannucci, Wendy Vierow, Vessela S. Warner, and Brenda Werth. Women Artists in Interwar France Paula J. Birnbaum, 2017-07-05 Women Artists in Interwar France: Framing Femininities illuminates the importance of the Société des Femmes Artistes Modernes, more commonly known as FAM, and returns this group to its proper place in the history of modern art. In particular, this volume explores how FAM and its most famous members, Suzanne Valadon, Marie Laurencin, and Tamara de Lempicka, brought a new approach to the most prominent themes of female embodiment: the self-portrait, motherhood, and the female nude. These women reimagined art's conventions and changed the direction of both art history and the politics of their contemporary art world. FAM has been excluded from histories of modern art despite its prominence during the interwar years. Paula Birnbaum's study redresses this omission, contextualizing the group's legacy in light of the conservative politics of 1930s France. The group's artistic response to the reactionary views and images of women at the time is shown to be a key element in the narrative of modernist formalism. Although many FAM works are missing, one reason for the lack of attention paid to their efforts, Birnbaum's extensive research through archives, press clippings, and first-hand interviews with artists' families, reclaims FAM.

as an important chapter in the history of art from the interwar years      Desire Change Heather Davis, 2017-06-26 In the resistance to the violence of gender based oppression vibrant but often ignored worlds have emerged full of nuance humour and beauty Correcting an absence of writing about contemporary feminist work by Canadian artists Desire Change considers the resurgence of feminist art thought and practice in the past decade by examining artworks that respond to themes of diversity and desire Essays by historians artists and curators present an overview of a range of artistic practices including performance installation video textiles and photography Contributors address the desire for change through three central frames how feminist art has significantly contributed to the complex understanding of gender as it intersects with sexuality and race the necessary critique of patriarchy and institutions as they relate to colonization within the Canadian nation state and the ways in which contemporary critiques are formed and expressed Heavily illustrated with representative works Desire Change raises both the stakes and the concerns of contemporary feminist art with an understanding that feminism is always and necessarily plural      Everyday Revolutions Michelle Arrow, Angela Woollacott, 2019-08-30 The 1970s was a decade when matters previously considered private and personal became public and political These shifts not only transformed Australian politics they engendered far reaching cultural and social changes Feminists challenged man made norms and sought to recover lost histories of female achievement and cultural endeavour They made films picked up spanners and established printing presses The notion that the personal was political began to transform long held ideas about masculinity and femininity both in public and private life In the spaces between official discourses and everyday experience many sought to revolutionise the lives of Australian men and women Everyday Revolutions brings together new research on the cultural and social impact of the feminist and sexual revolutions of the 1970s in Australia Gay Liberation and Women s Liberation movements erupted challenging almost every aspect of Australian life The pill became widely available and sexuality was both celebrated and flaunted Campaigns to decriminalise abortion and homosexuality emerged across the country Activists set up women s refuges rape crisis centres and counselling services Governments responded to new demands for representation and rights appointing women s advisors and funding new services Everyday Revolutions is unique in its focus not on the activist or legislative achievements of the women s and gay and lesbian movements but on their cultural and social dimensions It is a diverse and rich collection of essays that reminds us that women s and gay liberation were revolutionary movements      International Women Celebrate! , 2011      On this Island Billy Morrow Jackson, Siti Mariah Jackson, 2005 As the ferry leaves Woods Hole and Martha s Vineyard slowly rises on the horizon something inside you changes The air is cleaner the sky seems more blue and the water clearer Then you realize it is not the water or the air or the sky that change but that something inside you changes as you leave the mainland and draw closer to the Island Martha s Vineyard may be just a few miles off the coast of Cape Cod but to those who love the Island she is world away The Wampanoag name for the Vineyard Noepe means Island in the Streams and comes close to capturing the essence of Martha s Vineyard To describe

Martha's Vineyard historically and geographically is easy. It was formed nearly 12,000 years ago, was first settled by the Wampanoag Indians, and was discovered in 1602 by English mariner Bartholomew Gosnold. It is 100 square miles and consists of six distinct towns. But to capture the spirit of the Island is a much greater challenge. Acclaimed artists Billy Morrow Jackson, a Vineyard resident and visitor for over fifty years, and his wife Siti Maria Jackson provide an artist's view of this unique Island in the Streams. On this Island includes original paintings including classic works depicting the Gay Head Cliffs and Menemsha to the down Island towns of Vineyard Haven, Oak Bluffs, and Edgartown. The artists focus not only on the land that is Martha's Vineyard but they also capture the life and spirit of the people of the Island. On this Island, An Artist's View of Martha's Vineyard offers a rare view of the Island captured by two artists who know and appreciate all that the Island is.

Passage works Patricia Allmer, John Sears, 2025-02-25. Passage Works is the first book-length English language critical analysis of the transdisciplinary work of the Austrian film maker, writer, and artist Ruth Beckermann. b. 1952 Vienna. Beckermann's works interrogate identity and geography as formations of the intersections between the past and the contemporary. Taking as her central topics Austria and its history and politics, her own identity as a Jewish woman, and the contemporary global geopolitics of migration and displacement, Beckermann develops wider meditations in film, art, and writing on the persistence of European memory and the meanings of Europe itself on borders, migrations, and identities; on memories, traumas, and traditions; on the image as marker of presence and absence; repository of the traces of historical violence; and on the passage as metaphor for a range of physical, psychological, and ideological movements defining the complexities of contemporary cosmopolitan identities.

For Women and Girls Only Jessica Roda, 2024-03-05. Winner of the 2024 Jewish Music Special Interest Group Prize. A compelling look at the lives of ultra-Orthodox and formerly ultra-Orthodox Jewish women and their use of media technologies to create a new market for music and film. Mainstream portrayals of ultra-Orthodox religious women often frame their faith as oppressive; they are empowered only when they leave their community. This book flips this notion on its head. Drawing on six years of fieldwork between New York and Montreal, Jessica Roda examines modern performances on the stage and screen directed by and for ultra-Orthodox women. Their incredibly vibrant Jewish artistic scenes defy stereotypes that paint these women as repressed, reclusive, to their shtetl village, and devoid of creativity and agency. For Women and Girls Only argues that access to technology has completely transformed how ultra Orthodox women express their way of being religious and that the digital era has enabled them to create an alternative entertainment market outside of the public male dominated one Because expectations surrounding modesty ultra Orthodox women do not sing dance or act in front of men and the public Yet in a revolutionary move they are creating women and girls only spaces onsite and online putting the onus on men to shield themselves from the content They develop modest public spaces on the Internet about which male religious leaders are often unaware The book also explores the entanglement between these observant female artists and those who left religion and became public performers The author shows that the arts expressed by all these women offer a means of not only social but also economic empowerment in their respective worlds For Women and Girls Only is a groundbreaking reversal of mainstream portrayals of ultra Orthodox religious women and of those who have left the community yet maintain ties to it It is the first work to focus on the ultra Orthodox female art scene in music film and dance across North America and on social media
