

New Outlooks on Internationalizing Higher Education: Business School Trends

It is generally assumed that business schools and programs should be especially receptive to internationalization initiatives. Business is, after all, frequently counted as a leading force in globalization or a field of practice highly subject to its effects.

The most recent Open Doors report from the Institute of International Education indicates that business students comprised some 20% of all those who participated in study abroad programs over the 2016/17 academic year.

Percentage of US Study Abroad Students – Business and Management
