Postcolonialism and Political Theory explores the intersection between the political and the postcolonial through an engagement with critique of and challenge to some of the prevalent restrictive tenets and frameworks of Western political and social thought It is a response to the call by postcolonial studies as well as to the urgent need within world politics to turn towards a multiplicity_largely excluded from globally dominant discourses of community subjectivity power and prosperity_constituted by otherness radical alterity or subordination to the newly reconsolidated West The book offers a diverse range of essays that re examine and open the boundaries of political and cultural modernity s historical domain that look at how the racialized and gendered and cultured subject visualizes the social from elsewhere that critique the limits of postcolonial theory and its claim to celebrate diversity and that complicate the notion of postcolonial politics within settler societies that continue to practice exile of the indigenous Postcolonialism and Political Theory is an ideal book for graduate and advanced undergraduate level study and for those working both disciplinarily and interdisciplinarily both inside and outside academia World Anthropologies Gustavo Lins Ribeiro,Arturo Escobar,2020-07-12 Since its inception anthropology s authority has been based on the assumption that it is a unified discipline emanating from the West In an age of heightened globalization anthropologists have failed to discuss consistently the current status of their practice and its mutations across the globe World Anthropologies is the first book to provoke this conversation from various regions of the world in order to assess the diversity of relations between regional or national anthropologies and a contested power laden Western discourse Can a planetary anthropology cope with both the provincial cosmopolitanism of alternative anthropologies and the metropolitan provincialism of hegemonic schools How might the resulting world anthropologies challenge the current panorama in which certain allegedly national anthropological traditions have more paradigmatic weight and hence more power than others Critically examining the international dissemination of anthropology within and across national power fields contributors address these questions and provide the outline for a veritable world anthropologies project

   Radical Democracy and the Internet Lincoln Dahlberg,Eugenia Siapera,2007-05-22 In this systematic and mutual interrogation of radical democratic theory and Internet practice contributors examine a range of democratic theories in relation to online communication and explore how such communication may advance democracy beyond what is conceptualized and practised within present liberal capitalist political contexts   Azadi: Sexual Politics and Postcolonial Worlds Tara Atluri,2016-02-01 In December of 2012 in Delhi India a woman was gang raped tortured and inflicted with such bodily violence that she died as a result of the injuries The case caused massive public protests in Delhi and throughout the Indian subcontinent These large scale public mobilizations lead to attempts to change national laws pertaining to sexual violence One year after this case The Supreme Court of India made the contentious decision to uphold Section 377 of the Indian Penal Code Section 377 instituted by British colonizers dates back to 1860 and criminalizes sexual activities deemed to be unnatural namely queer sex and queer people In December of 2013 massive protests also occurred throughout India regarding this decision Both these cases received worldwide media attention and lead to public demonstrations and debates regarding sexual politics throughout Asia and globally There was a resilient refrain heard at many of the political protests that took place A za di A za di is loosely translated into freedom Drawing on interviews done in the Indian subcontinent this book suggests that while colonial violence haunts postcolonial sexualities anti colonial resistance also remains echoing in the streets like the chorus of an old song A za di Postcolonial Studies Pramod K. Nayar,2015-07-09 This new anthology brings together the most diverse and recent voices in postcolonial theory to emerge since 9 11 alongside classic texts in established areas of postcolonial studies Brings fresh insight and renewed political energy to established domains such as nation history literature and gender Engages with contemporary concerns such as globalization digital cultures neo colonialism and language debates Includes wide geographical coverage from Ireland and India to Israel and Palestine Provides uniquely broad coverage offering a full sense of the tradition including significant essays on science technology and development education and literacy digital cultures and transnationalism Edited by a distinguished postcolonial scholar this insightful volume serves scholars and students across multiple disciplines from literary and cultural studies to anthropology and digital studies An Introduction to New Media and Cybercultures Pramod K. Nayar,2010-01-11 This introduction to cybercultures provides a cutting edge and much needed guide to the rapidly changing world of new media and communication Considers cyberculture and new media through contemporary race gender and sexuality studies and postcolonial theory Offers a clear analysis of some of the most complex issues in cybercultures including identity network societies new geographies and connectivity Includes discussions of gaming social networking geography net democracy aesthetics popular internet culture the body sexuality and politics Examines key questions in the political economy racialization gendering and governance of cyberculture Cultural Technologies Göran Bolin,2012-09-10 The essays in this volume discuss both the culture of technology that we live in today and culture as technology Within the chapters of the book cultures of technology and cultural technologies are discussed focussing on a variety of examples from varied national contexts The book brings together internationally recognised scholars from the social sciences and humanities covering diverse themes such as intellectual property server farms and search engines cultural technologies and epistemology virtual embassies surveillance peer to peer file sharing sound media and nostalgia and much more It contains both historical and contemporary analyses of technological phenomena as well as epistemological discussions on the uses of technology

Postcolonial Transitions in Europe Sandra Ponzanesi,Gianmaria Colpani,2015-12-14 A comparative and multidisciplinary exploration of Europe s colonial past in relation to present multicultural cosmopolitan and or neocolonial experiences assessing political cultural and mediatized transitions Women, Globalization , and Mass Media Kiran Prasad,2006 Contributed articles African Immigrants in Contemporary Spanish Texts Debra Faszer-McMahon,Victoria L. Ketz,2016-03-09 Around the turn of 21st Century Spain welcomed more than six million foreigners many of them from various parts of the African continent How African immigrants represent themselves and are represented in contemporary Spanish texts is the subject of this interdisciplinary collection Analyzing blogs films translations and literary works by contemporary authors including Donato Ndongo Ecquatorial Guinea Abderrahman El Fathi Morocco Chus Guti rrez Spain Juan Bonilla Spain and Bahia Mahmud Awah Western Sahara the contributors interrogate how Spanish cultural texts represent idealize or sympathize with the plight of immigrants as well as the ways in which immigrants themselves represent Spain and Spanish culture At the same time these works shed light on issues related to Spain s racial ethnic and sexual boundaries the appeal of images of Africa in the contemporary marketplace and the role of Spain s economic crisis in shaping attitudes towards immigration Taken together the essays are a convincing reminder that cultural texts provide a mirror into the perceptions of a society during times of change Understanding Research M.I. Franklin,2012-10-12 Planning undertaking and completing a research project from dissertations to presentations can be a daunting undertaking for any student involving a number of easily taken mis steps for those without adequate guidance The objective of any research project is to gather data analyse it based on your research question and present your findings and conclusions For students having the right approach to these steps can mean the difference between an easily handled process resulting in a well argued and presented project or panicked flailing misdirection and confusion For those fearful of not getting enough research done doing it the wrong way putting it together incorrectly or unsure of what the end result will be then Understanding Research is an invaluable guide to getting it right and putting fears to bed Successfully completing a research project is a major milestone in most university degrees and it should be daunting although not unassailable This book provides students with the guidance necessary to start undertake and present their research project in social science or the humanities This text addresses Where do I start How do I begin my research and pull it together into a research question takes the student through the process of project design starting research and gaining confidence in their choices Am I Researching the right things Is it taking me in the direction I want to go What direction is it taking me in explores the decision making process at all points of a research project and the implications of these decisions in the longer term Am I researching in the right way should I be conducting interviews reading articles or collecting statistical data outlines the practical and philosophical conundrums around specific techniques for gathering and analysing data Focussed explicitly on the needs and experiences of students and including a wealth of practical tips this work is an essential resource for all students embarking on a research project Understanding Research includes 90 illustrations 2 tables 21 text boxes Glossary Further Reading guides for each chapter Reformatting Politics Jodi Dean,Jon W. Anderson,Geert Lovink,2013-05-13 This book examines the ways in which new information and communication technologies ICTs are being used by civil society organizations CSOs to achieve their aims through activities and networks that cross national borders These new ICTs the internet mobile phones satellite radio and television have allowed these civil society organizations to form extensive networks linking the local and the global in new ways and to flourish internationally in ways that were not possible without them Reformatting Politics consists of four sections containing essays by some of the top scholars and activists working at the intersections of networked societies civil society organizations and information technology The book also includes a section that takes a critical look at the UN World Summit of Information Society and the role that global governance has played and will play in the use and dissemination of these new technologies Finally the contributors aim to influence this important and emerging field of inquiry by posing a set of questions and directions for future research In sum Reformatting Politics is a fresh look at the way critical network practice through the use of information technology is reformatting the terms and terrains of global politics
