

The Interpretation of French Song — Pierre Bernac

With a complete French text and English translation of the lyrics, this is a superb collection of French songs, performed by the great French singer Pierre Bernac. The songs are arranged in chronological order, from the 17th century to the 20th century. The collection includes songs by such famous composers as Lully, Rameau, Gluck, Mozart, Beethoven, Schubert, Chopin, Liszt, Debussy, and others. The French text is in a clear, easy-to-read font, and the English translation is in a smaller font below it. The collection is a must-have for anyone who loves French music.

The Interpretation of French Song, by Pierre Bernac. Translation of Song Texts by Winifred Radford Pierre Bernac, 1970 A French Song Companion Graham Johnson, Richard Stokes, 2002 The French Song Companion is the most comprehensive book of French melodie in any language The great accompanist Graham Johnson a noted authority of song provides repertoire guides to the work of some 150 composers the majority of them from France but including British American German Spanish and Italian musicians who have written French vocal music There are major articles on such figures as Faur Duparc Debussy Ravel and Poulenc substantial articles on Bizet Chabrier Gounod Chausson Hahn and Satie and reassessments of such composers as Massenet Koechlin and Leguerney A host of less celebrated figures who have contributed to the genre take their place in a book which is both informative and entertaining The biographical articles are supplemented by the song translations of Richard Stokes some 700 in all and a veritable treasury of great French poetry from the fifteenth to the twentieth centuries These stand in their own right as indispensable to music lovers concert goers and professional singers and their accompanists This is a book which not only reflects the repertoire as found in today's concert halls but also encourages performers and armchair enthusiasts to explore the neglected highways and byways of an endlessly fascinating and highly civilised body of music

The Interpretation of French Song. Translations of Song Texts, by Winifred Radford Pierre Bernac, 1971 Le Chant Intime François Le Roux, Romain Raynaldy, 2021-06-29 In this translation of the groundbreaking Le Chant Intime internationally renowned baritone François Le Roux in conversation with journalist Romain Raynaldy presents a master class on French art song with a thorough analysis of 60 selected songs that deviate from the traditionally narrow repertoire of the m lodie genre Taking an approach that goes far beyond the typical limiting conventions Le Roux and Raynaldy adhere to composer Francis Poulenc s principle that a song should always be a love affair not an arranged marriage Neither theoretical nor purely academic this guide instills in its readers a deep appreciation for the historical and artistic context of each piece by enriching each analysis with the full text of the lyrical poem and several musical examples as well as fascinating details of historic premieres concert halls singers and poets Paired with intensive and practical notes related to the nuances of melody and vocal delivery each analysis provides an essential reference for performers and listeners alike The translation is due to the expertise of musicologist and pianist Sylvia Kahan Professor of Music at the Graduate Center and College of Staten Island CUNY Song Carol Kimball,2006-12-01 Carol Kimball s comprehensive survey of art song literature has been the principal one volume American source on the topic Now back in print after an absence of several years this newly revised edition includes biographies and discussions of the work of
