Hodgkinson,2025-04-01 A century ago Charles Leonard Woolley directed the first excavations at Amarna site M50 14 16 identifying it as a workshop for glass and faience However the archaeological record and its publication in The City of Akhenaten I were somewhat superficial New excavations conducted by the Amarna Project in 2014 and 2017 yielded extensive evidence of glass faience stone and metalworking reaffirming the site s role as a workshop These investigations also illuminated its domestic character uncovering valuable data on houses and other structural remains This volume presents a near complete record of the site offering a comprehensive archaeological and architectural evaluation alongside in depth analyses of material culture including archaeobotany charcoal animal bones ceramics and other artefacts The individual chapters reconstruct the chaines operatoires of various craft production activities Additionally the organisation of production and the concept of cross craft interaction are explored as the site is situated within the broader industrial network of Amarna This volume furthermore provides an in depth examination of the inhabitants roles and daily lives enriching our understanding of this significant site Mobility, Meaning and Transformations of Things Hans Peter Hahn,Hadas Weis,2013-01-31 Things travel around the globe they are shipped as mass consumer goods or transported as souvenirs or gifts There are infinite ways for things to be mobile not only in the era of globalisation but since the beginning of time as the earliest traces of long distance trading show This book investigates the mobility of things from archaeological and anthropological perspectives Material Objects are characterised by temporal continuity embodying a prior existence with lingering effects Yet the material continuity disguises the transformations they may undergo which only become evident upon closer examination Objects are in perpetual flux leaving visible traces of their age usage and previous life While travelling through time objects also circulate through space and their spatial mobility alters their meaning and use with respect to new cultural horizons As objects transform through time and space so does the value attributed to them Mapping out itineraries of value in the realm of the material allows us to grasp the nature of a given social formation through the shape and meaning taken on by its valued stuff It also provides insights into the nature of materiality through the value ascribed to objects at a given point in time and space This edited volume brings together studies of material culture materiality and value with regard to the mobility of objects with the aim of tracing the ways in which societies constitute their valued objects and how the realm of the material reflects upon society Moonlight on a Weathered Path: Selected Readings for Dramatic

Interpretation Jamantha Williams Watson,2013-01-22 Jamantha Williams Watson takes us inside the lives of several individuals struggling to find their places in a world where fairness morality and civility do not always apply From Slippery Slopes to Locked Out Watson s characters live in a world where their dreams often supersede their realm of reality a world where things are not always as they seem Though Watson s style is subtle and sophisticated it is also jarring leaving the reader on the edge of their seat In Moonlight on a Weathered Path Selected Readings for Dramatic Interpretation we experience Watson s stories and live with her characters even after the last page is turned Medieval Jewelry and Burial Assemblages in Croatia Vladimir Sokol,2016-03-17 The Croatian medieval archaeological heritage from the 8th to the 15th century consists mostly of jewelry earrings findings from cemeteries This book uses vertical and horizontal stratigraphy on the basis of around 20 000 burial assemblages from 16 cemeteries out of several hundred so far excavated in Croatia to establish relative and absolute chronology of jewelry and burial architecture divided into three horizons and four phases in comparison with materials from neighboring regions of Europe Rethinking Fashion Globalization Sarah Cheang, Erica de Greef, Yoko Takagi,2021-07-15 Rethinking Fashion Globalization is a timely call to rewrite the fashion system and push back against Eurocentric dominance within fashion histories by presenting new models approaches and understandings of fashion from critical thinkers at the forefront of decolonial fashion discourse This edited collection draws together original diverse and richly reflective critiques of the fashion system from both established and emerging fashion scholars researchers and creative practitioners Chapters straddle current calls for decolonization and inclusion as well as reflections on de westernization post colonialism sustainability transnationalism national identities social activism global fashion narratives diversity and more The volume is divided into three key themes Disruptions in Time and Space Nationalism and Transnationalism and Global Design Practices These themes re map fashion s origins practices and futures to present alternatives for reclaiming and rethinking fashion globalization in the 21st century The Keystone ,1929

Reading a Dynamic Canvas Cynthia S. Colburn, Maura K. Heyn,2021-02-03 Personal adornment as an extension of the body is a crucial component in social interaction The active process of adorning the body can shape embodied identities such as social status ethnicity gender and age As a result of its dynamic and performative nature the body can often convey meaning more powerfully and convincingly than verbal communication Yet adornment is not easily read and does not necessarily reflect actual lived experience Rather bodily adornment and the performances that accompany it can be manipulated to conceal or exaggerate reality thus speaking more to identity discourse The interpretation of such discourse must be grounded in an understanding of the context specific and negotiable nature of adornment The essays in this volume which are united by their focus on material and visual evidence cover a broad chronological and geographical span from the ancient Near East to Roman Britain and bring together innovative scholarly work on adornment by an international group of art historians and archaeologists This attention to the archaeological evidence makes the volume a valuable resource as those working with material or visual culture face unique methodological and theoretical challenges to the study of adornment     The Reference Shakespeare: a Self-interpreting Edition of Shakespeare's Plays, Containing 11,600 References Compiled by J.
