Interpreting The Atonement:

Cross Covenant R. Larry Shelton, 2006-10-01 Seeking a fresh missionally relevant account of Christ's work Larry Shelton analyzes the biblical notion of sacrifice as a gift alongside other theories of atonement. He attempts to show a historical movement away from penal substitutionary theologies toward a Trinitarian relational model. Interpreting the Atonement Robert H. Culpepper, 1966 In this widely praised volume Robert H. Culpepper places the doctrine of the atonement at the center of the Christian faith and carries on his discussion of it against the background of a biblical understanding of sin, presenting the Old Testament foundations, the New Testament witness, and various historical interpretations. He concludes with a constructive statement of the doctrine that will serve the reader well as a guide to a deeper understanding of Christianity and its practice in today's world. I regard this as the ablest and most helpful general work on the doctrine of the atonement that is currently available. The treatment is judiciously balanced between the biblical, historical, and reconstructive aspects of the subject. W. Boyd Hunt, Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary. Comprehensive and balanced in its approach. Biblically grounded. A solid, helpful study. I. John Hesselink, Western Theological Seminary. Robert H. Culpepper served as a Southern Baptist missionary and seminary teaching in Japan for thirty years before returning permanently to the United States in 1980. He is professor emeritus at Southeastern Baptist Seminary, Wake Forest, North Carolina.

Understanding Atonement Gary A. Fox, 2019-09-24 At some point in the Christian faith journey, most people ask the question, "Why did Jesus die?" The most common answer is "For my sins." But what if Jesus died because of the sin of humanity, not for individual sins? It seems weirdly illogical for a God who is love (1 John 4:8) to demand a blood sacrifice to cover sin. It is not what the Jewish sacrificial system supported either. I hope that this book will help us understand that God loves us and will not forsake us. Ever. Forgiveness is about love, not punishment. How To Read T. F. Torrance Elmer M.

Colyer, 2007-12-01 Thomas F. Torrance is regarded as one of the foremost Reformed theologians of the second half of the twentieth century. He taught for thirty years at New College, University of Edinburgh, Scotland, until his retirement in 1979. He has written extensively, contributing more than twenty major works of theology and hundreds of articles in a variety of languages. In this book, Elmer Colyer provides access to Torrance's voluminous writings, demonstrating the profoundly trinitarian and evangelical spirit of Torrance's theology. Colyer also captures his concern to formulate a renewed theological method in the tradition of Athanasius. Colyer helps us see how, in Torrance's view and practice, a truly scientific approach must be godly in order to be accurate and faithful. The Meanings We Choose Charles H. Cosgrove, 2004-09-01

The Meanings We Choose is an engagement with responsible Bible reading. Hebrew Bible, Old Testament, and New Testament texts for the past as well as for the present and future. Its stated perspectives are multi-denominational Christian, but the implications of such readings go far beyond a specific confessional framework. In the present political climate, the aware, responsible personal is meaningful for any community, confessedly religious as well as otherwise. While the articles collected in this volume broadly speaking can and perhaps should be compartmentalized as ideological criticism their significance for reading ideologies different from their own is more than considerable Interpreting the General Letters Herbert W. Bateman IV, 2014-11-07 This handbook is designed as a step by step approach for analyzing and communicating eight letters of the New Testament Hebrews James the Petrine Letters the Johannine Letters and Jude Interpreting the General Letters provides important background material for the interpretation of these books by exploring the types and component parts of letter writing the importance of an amanuensis the historical background of the Greco Roman world and implications of each of these factors for interpreting the general letters This foundation is followed by a discussion of the theology of the general letters Specific consideration is given to the era of promise in Hebrew Scriptures the era of fulfillment as underscored in the general letters and how the theology of each letter contributes to the overall canon of Scripture Finally Bateman provides nine steps that move from interpretation to communication three steps for preparing to interpret the letters three for interpreting and finally three for communicating the letters All explanations include examples in order to develop a student's or pastor's skills for accurate interpretation and convicting communication of God's Word See page 21 for full series details

Understanding Paul Peter Frick, 2023-09-04 Peter Frick argues that the key issue to which the apostle Paul correlates the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ is the power of sin Sin singular is an ontological existential category and distinct from sins plural For the death of Jesus to be effective in overcoming the power of sin salvation is established strictly in the new ontology of the resurrection of Jesus An Introduction to Torrance Theology Gerrit Scott Dawson, 2007-09-01 For more than six decades the brothers Torrance Thomas James and David have had a tremendous influence on the theological world They and particularly TF Torrance have a devoted following world wide and particularly in the US Their high view of the fully human fully divine Jesus is built upon the foundation of the Patristic writers and the great Reformers from Calvin to Barth Working in both pastoral and academic settings the Torrances have stressed the profound implications of Christology for the mission of their Church and the daily life of Christians Today a generation of their students around the world find themselves in positions of pastoral and theological leadership The focus of this book is the person of Christ christology a subject central to the Torrance theological vision and one which has had great influence on the Presbyterian church The contributors explore the contemporary relevance of Torrance Christology in such areas as the nature of Christ the atonement the ministry of the Church epistemology and inclusion in Christ The result is a book that offers both a fresh introduction to the Torrance tradition even as it advances the Torrance thought along fresh avenues of theological exploration Systematic Theology, Volume 2, Second Edition James Leo Garrett Jr., 2014-09-14 Rivals the major systematic theologies of this century Baptist History and Heritage Journal July 1996 One of the characteristics of Garrett's system that needs especially to be noted is its balanced judicious and nearly invariably objective presentation of materials While holding true to the teachings of his own Baptist faith Garrett so carefully and judiciously presents alternatives that teachers and students from other confessional and

Atonement and Comparative Theology Catherine Cornille,2021-09-07 The central Christian belief in salvation through the suffering death and resurrection of Jesus Christ remains one of the most intractable mysteries of Christian faith Throughout history it has given rise to various theories of atonement many of which have been subject to critique as they no longer speak to contemporary notions of evil and sin or to current conceptions of justice One of the important challenges for contemporary Christian theology thus involves exploring new ways of understanding the salvific meaning of the cross In Atonement and Comparative Theology Christian theologians with expertise in Judaism Islam Hinduism Buddhism Daoism and African Religions reflect on how engagement with these traditions sheds new light on the Christian understanding of atonement by pointing to analogous structures of sin and salvation drawing attention to the scandal of the cross as seen by the religious other and re interpreting aspects of the Christian understanding of atonement Together they illustrate the possibilities for comparative theology to deepen and enrich Christian theological reflection Dictionary of Paul and His Letters InterVarsity Press,2023-04-11 In this thoroughly revised and updated edition of a classic reference work topics like Christology justification and hermeneutics receive careful treatment by trusted specialists New topics like politics patronage and different cultural perspectives expand the volume s breadth and usefulness for scholars pastors and students today

The Spatiotemporal Eschatology of Hebrews Luke Woo,2024-07-11 There are two coexisting realities classified under New Testament eschatology the temporal and spatial While much scholarly attention has focused on the temporal Luke Woo argues that the spatial aspect is either neglected or relegated to Platonic or cosmological categories Woo thus seeks to provide a holistic understanding by investigating these realities for believers under the heavenly tabernacle motif in the Epistle to the Hebrews Woo posits that the author of Hebrews presents the heavenly tabernacle and all its high priestly activity in order to eschatologically situate orient and ground believers thus enabling believers to actualize their heavenly priestly identity by serving as priests on earth Woo uses Edward Soja s Tripartite Critical Spatiality to analyze the heavenly tabernacle s Firstspace Secondspace and Thirdspace features found in Hebrews 4 14 8 1 5 9 1 14 He suggests that Christ in his resurrection and ascension enters an actualized heavenly tabernacle which allows believers to spiritually occupy that sanctuary space in the presence of God establishing a spatial orientation for believers who can identify as heavenly priests and be motivated to serve as such as they live on earth

The Christian Understanding of Atonement Frederick William Dillistone,1968 My concern has been to deal honestly with human problems and needs as far as I understand them and at the same time to present as true an account as I can of the way in which men have discovered answers related to those needs through all that is implied in the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ Whatever else may be in doubt about the New Testament it is clear that the Word of the Cross is its very heart and nerve centre My aim has been to establish lines of communication between that nerve centre and the alienation of mankind in our contemporary world In this classic study of atonement now reissued Dr Dillistone not only examines the biblical and theological material on atonement but also surveys a wide range of human experience including other religions literature and the arts Ex Auditu - Volume 26 Klyne Snodgrass, 2011-05-09 CONTENTS Introduction Klyne Snodgrass In Him All Things Hold Together An Ecology of Atonement William P Brown Response to Brown Michael LeFebvre Effecting the Covenant A Not So New New Testament Model for the Atonement Michael Gorman Response to Gorman Troy Martin Response to Martin Michael Gorman Anyone Hung On A Tree Is Under God's Curse Deuteronomy 21-23 Jesus Crucifixion and Interreligious Exegetical Debate in Late Antiquity Peter W Martens Happily Ever After Paul Peter Waldenstrom Be Ye Reconciled to God Michelle A Clifton Soderstrom Response to Clifton Soderstrom Timothy L Johnson The Social Dimension of Atonement in the Torah Viktor Ber Response to Ber Jeremy J Wynne To Those Who Were Distant and Those Who Were Near Atonement Identity and Identification Brian Bantum An Evangelical Feminist Perspective on Traditional Atonement Models Linda D Peacore Response to Peacore Jo Ann Deasy Saving Bodies Anagogical Transposition in St Gregory of Nyssa's Commentary on the Song of Songs Hans Boersma Ransomed Healed Restored Forgiven John 5:1-16 Carol Noren Rethinking the Atonement David M. Moffitt, 2022-11-15 Traditional views of the atonement tend to be reductive focusing solely on Jesus's death on the cross In his 2011 groundbreaking book Atonement and the Logic of Resurrection in the Epistle to the Hebrews David Moffitt challenged that paradigm showing how the atonement is a fuller process It involves not only Jesus's death but also his resurrection ascension offering and exaltation In the succeeding years Moffitt has continued to expand and clarify his thinking on this issue This book offers a more fulsome articulation of his work on the atonement that reflects his recent thinking on the topic Moffitt continues to challenge reductive views of the atonement primarily from the book of Hebrews but he engages other New Testament passages as well He offers fresh insights on sacrifice and atonement the importance of resurrection and ascension Jesus's role as priest and a new perspective on Hebrews This important book brings Moffitt's award winning and influential scholarship to a broader audience The book includes a foreword by N T Wright Methodist Theology Thomas A.
